From the Pastor's Pen

Sunday is the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. This is always a high point for our church. Jesus has given us a commission that encircles the entire globe. Our calling is world-wide. The Week of Prayer does at least two things for us. One, it focuses our praying on our foreign mission work. Two, it calls our attention to needs and opportunities beyond our immediate area.

The old saying "out of sight, out of mind" should never be applied to the needs of people around the world, but I'm afraid it does sometimes. We need to maintain a world vision for Jesus, because there are people around the entire world who need Him. There are missionaries around the world who also need our prayers. Let's not grow careless in our responsibilities world-wide.

I'll see you Sunday in Sunday School.

Love,
 Preacher
