From Lance Brewer to FBC Fayetteville

Church Family, eleven years ago I stood on the stage in the sanctuary of our church for the first time, sharing my story of how I came to know Jesus Christ as my savior and how He called me into fulltime vocational ministry. That is when my call and the call of FBC Fayetteville merged. The past eleven years have been a wonderful part of my story in Christ, serving his Kingdom alongside you all as your Minister of Adults. But I now share with you that the story is changing for Missy and me. I have accepted the call to serve as the Family Pastor at the First Baptist Church in Jenks, Oklahoma. I will begin this new role in late January, and I will be finishing my role, as Minister of Adult here at FBC Fayetteville, on January 14.

Over the next few weeks, I hope to be able to express my love and gratitude to many of you in a more intimate setting. But today, with my deepest gratitude, I want to thank you, First Baptist Fayetteville, for helping make me into a better pastor, teacher, leader, and overall follower of Christ. It has been a joy to serve the Kingdom with you.

Equally meaningful to Missy and I has been the help you’ve given us in the raising up of our two children in the ways of the Lord. You, this church have done this; we have felt very much like family in the raising of our kids. Thank you for that.

Missy and I are blessed for having been servants of Christ alongside you. May Christ’s blessing increase in you and go out from you in the decades to come.

In Christ,

Lance Brewer
