2025 Nominees for Election to the Board of Directors

September 2025

Dear CMA Members,

The CMA board, along with myself as President, submit the following candidates for the office of Director with our full endorsement. The candidates have agreed to serve, are qualified to serve, and will be recommended to the membership at the 2025 AGM.

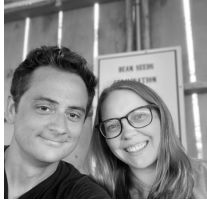

This year, we present to you our three incumbents: Director Randy Emerson, Director James Bonney, and Director John Canaday. After prayer and some discussion, they have all agreed to have their names stand. In this season of the Father re-visiting wineskins, it has become evident that the Holy Spirit is asking us to steady our relationships and not add any new board members this year. As incumbents, we have therefore forgone formal introductions.

The Board of Directors will ask the membership for a vote of approval on the presented candidates.

May His Spirit lead us always, unto Him.

7. PRESIDENT'S REPORT - Steve Schroeder

Steve shared that we decided not to hold an orientation class for New Applicants, so they could be in the main meetings and absorb as much of our culture as possible. We give the best of ourselves to each other. We have the invitation of our Father to devote ourselves to the Word and Prayer (Acts 6:4). Your calling and anointing are from God. The way you get in is the way you are sustained.

Steve recounted how he became President of the CMA twenty years ago, and his election to Hope Town Council, where he learned the difference between the government of God and the government of man. Steve expressed thanks to the team members on the Board. The CMA Board is not an apostolic group. We have policies that have changed over time. Authority is vertical, not horizontal. Authority comes from the Lord, and how you spend time with Him.

Steve invited Jason Heffron to share about the Eastern Gathering, held in London, Ontario, in May. Jason spoke about the costs and challenges of coming from the East. Jason talked about what the CMA means to him, and about first attending the conference ten years ago, the growth we have seen since then, and the heart to provide for our President. Jason prepared the first budget for the CMA. Ontario makes up about 10% of our membership, and most come once every three years. How do you catch the culture of the CMA when you are only exposed once every three years. Jason's desire was to see the heart of the CMA shared in Ontario. Steve shared his heart and the culture of the CMA.

Steve shared about the $20,000. we received from a foundation for 3 years during Covid. We have not received this grant last year or this year. We used this money last year to build connections within the CMA.

Steve drew attention to the QR that would enable members to connect for prayer. John Canaday will co-ordinate this.

Steve invited Niki Shelton to share about what the CMA means to them and what has changed in the last year. Niki shared about God's call to be ordained as a minister and her journey to become the National Director of Burn 24/7.

8. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Steve Schroeder mentioned that In the past, when we were smaller, people were nominated from the floor. As we grew this became difficult to know who was being nominated and if they were called by the Lord to do this. We implemented a policy that was labourious and frustrating. Policies are guidelines and are changeable. Steve has recommended that we continue with the incumbents in this season of change.

Nominations for the Board of Directors are John Fortune, Jason Heffren, and David Roch.

Be it resolved that John (Doug) Fortune be elected for a three term to the Board of Directors (National Executive).

Moved: Elaine Smart Seconded: Korky Neufeldt Carried

Be it resolved that Jason Heffron be elected for a three term to the Board of Directors (National Executive).

Moved: Josh Hoffert Seconded: Barclay West Carried

Be it resolved that David Roch be elected for a three term to the Board of Directors (National Executive).

Moved: Randy Emerson Seconded: Eric Cooper Carried

10. NEW APPLICANTS

Steve spoke about the call to ministry. It is not to be taken lightly. Our relationship with God and marriages is more important than assignment. When we solemnize weddings we are administering the covenants of God and the ability to bless. God invites us to come and be with Him. Steve related how RT Kendall recommended that we know our bibles and to pray. Covering is important. Covering is a blanket that warms and comforts. It does not cover your head or usurps your authority.

John Fortune introduced the new applicants.

Be it resolved that the 2024 new applicants be Approved as amended and welcomed into membership.

Moved - Niall MacTaggart Seconded - Eben Lee Carried

11. NOTICE OF NEXT AGM MEETING

Tuesday September 23, 2025

12. MOTION TO ADJOURN moved by Randy Emerson

John Fortune declared the meeting adjourned at 4:15pm and members gathered to pray for the new members.
