

Statement on Marriage

The Christian Ministers Association affirms the historic Biblical definition of marriage as the sacred commitment between one man and one woman in a lifelong relationship to the exclusion of all others.

The Christian Ministers Association credentials its members to solemnize marriages that conform to the historic Biblical definition of marriage. It is expected that credentialed members of the Christian Ministers Association shall not solemnize, officiate, co-officiate, or affirm any marriage other than between one man and one woman.