

CareWorks Sewing Supervisor (CALD)

An exciting opportunity exists for a Sewing Supervisor to join the CareWorks Team at Northern Community Church of Christ in vibrant Preston, Victoria. This position is subject to government funding.

Northern Community Church of Christ (NCCC) commenced in 1999 through the amalgamation of four churches. Since that time, NCCC has at its heart a commitment to explore meaningful ways to engage with its surrounding community. CareWorks is the community arm of Northern and currently hosts various activities providing training for job seekers, practical community service and creates a wide range of site-made products. The CareWorks Sewing activity works with job seekers, many from a CALD demographic, in completing a group sewing project at the end of each six months.

Experience in the clothing and textile sector is preferred as is commitment to best practice in the oversight and running of the Sewing activity, the ability to supervise diverse teams, the ability to work sensitively with the CALD community and meet the room's health and safety requirements. As a valuable part of the CareWorks Team, you will have the opportunity to bring recommendations to the CareWorks Manager and work towards the successful running of the sewing activity.

Days will be 8:30am-5:30pm three days a week.
