

LOVE ROSE AGAIN

“In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him.”

1 John 4:9 (NKJV)

Love rose so we can live as love.

John 13:1-9

Idolatry of self is one of the biggest deceptions that keeps us from experiencing God’s purpose for our lives. Our lives are created to reflect the character of God. Jesus, God with us, did not come to be served but to be a servant to all. Our lives are found in this mindset.

What can you do to keep your mind focused on servanthood in the midst of your own personal needs and circumstances?

Hebrews 12: 1-2

To endure this journey of faith and purpose takes a determined focus on the example that Christ set for us all. Our eyes set on the cross reminds us of our value defined by our Father in heaven.

How have you reminded yourself lately of your value as defined by God Himself?

Luke 22: 31-32

For our faith to fail is to not embrace the gift of God’s grace when we have stumbled and fallen in our walk. To elevate the SAVIOR OVER THE SIN is to find mercy, grace and strength to move forward in victory.

How are you avoiding a works based relationship with the Father? What steps can move you forward in confidence?

Hebrews 8:11-14

When Jesus cried “It is finished!” the veil of the temple was torn in two. The divider between a holy God and sinful man was removed. This signifies forgiveness found in the sacrifice of Christ and the relationship with our creator has been restored. He is with you, always!

What are some practical steps you can take to engage in the real and present relationship with your creator that is available to you?

Hebrews 4: 14-16

Our destiny is found in obedience to God and service to others. The grace and mercy of God meets us where we are and always says, “Don’t look back but move forward with the confidence of my love.”

How have your weaknesses/struggles created a gap between you and your Father in heaven?

John 16: 5-7

To love God with all of our hearts and to love others as ourselves is where destiny and abundant life are found. The great news is that God provides His help to empower us to walk obediently to these commands. The Holy Spirit is our great HELPER!

In your present walk of faith, how are you relying on the HELPER?
