

John 11:33 (English Standard Version)

When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled.

King James Version: "He _____ in the spirit ..."

Christian Standard Bible: "He _____ in His spirit ..."

Is Jesus _____ here? If so _____? And _____?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

John 11:33 says Jesus was, "greatly troubled." How do we reconcile this with John 14:1, where Jesus says, "Let not your hearts be troubled"?

Being troubled is a _____ but not to _____, which was _____ because it _____.

For us in our grief, John 14:1 is not _____ but _____. Jesus offers _____.

Something to cherish in this passage: _____.

What does this passage teach us about how to face the death of a loved one?

Grief is _____ and _____.

But, we _____ because _____

_____!

Question: What do you think of Jesus' emotional reactions in this passage? Does it draw you to him? Why or why not?