Questions about Israel, the Bible, and the End Times

by David C. Mauldin

On October 7, the terror attacks against Israel stunned the world. I continue to grieve this tragedy. The subsequent war against Hamas has raised many theological questions within our congregation. People are asking me:

- ♦ “We’re seeing news feeds about Israel’s war against Hamas all week. On Sunday, we are hearing your sermon series about the Exodus. What is the connection between Israel back then and Israel today? Are they the same? Different? How?”
- ♦ “Are the events in Israel today signs of the end times? If so, what do they mean?”

I hear these questions and variations of them frequently. I thought readers of our newsletter might appreciate answers.

Can we draw a straight line from the Exodus generation who left Egypt under Moses to the modern state of Israel? Yes and no. Yes, in the sense that Israel is a Jewish state, and Jews are physically descended from the Exodus generation. They share a common heritage and traditions, such as Passover. All this is complicated by the fact that some Jews adhere strictly to a literal interpretation of the Old Testament while others are more theologically liberal, and still others do not believe in God at all. Still, there is a connection.

However—and here it gets a little tricky—the Bible speaks about “the Israel of God” (Galatians 6:16). The Israel of God is heir to the covenant promises given to Abraham. God works out his purposes for salvation through the Israel of God. Who is the Israel of God? Jesus is the Israel of God!

All the promises of God find their fulfillment in Jesus. Everything in the Old Testament both prepared for and pointed to Jesus. Importantly, Jesus saw himself as the true Israel, the Israel of God. This is why he chose twelve disciples. In the Old Testament, Jacob (a.k.a. Israel) had twelve sons, and they became the twelve tribes of Israel. By appointing twelve special disciples, Jesus made the implicit claim to be the true Israel. He was reconstituting Israel around himself. Also, John 15:1 records that Jesus said, “I am the true vine.” Jews in that day immediately recognized the reference. Isaiah 5:1-7, Jeremiah 6:9, and Hosea 10:1 refer to Israel as a vine. “I am the true vine” means “I am the true Israel.” I could point to many other ways that Jesus claimed to be the Israel of God.

“Everything in the Old Testament both prepared for and pointed to Jesus. Importantly, Jesus saw himself as the true Israel, the Israel of God.”

The Israel of God also includes all those who, by faith, are united to Jesus. Paul gives us a beautiful picture in Romans 11 that helps us understand this. He compares Israel to an olive tree. (In keeping with Jesus’ claim to be the true Israel, the tree is also Jesus.) Jews who believe in Jesus are natural branches that belong to the tree. Jews who do not believe in Jesus are natural branches that have been cut off by unbelief. Gentiles who believe in Jesus are branches from wild olive trees that have been grafted into the tree. It is not that the church replaces Israel in God’s plan. Rather, Israel always was the church, and the church is the Israel of God. God’s plan all along was for a people from every race and nation, redeemed by Jesus and united with him.

Where does that leave Jews? Has God’s plan simply moved on without them? No, for two reasons. First, in every generation, many Jews come to faith in Jesus. God never stops calling them! As Paul says in Romans 3, being a Jew is a big advantage because the scriptures that point to Jesus belong to them. Second, as Paul says in Romans 11:28-29, “They are beloved for the sake of their forefathers. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.” Jews remain special to God. This does not mean one can be saved by being a good Jew apart from faith in Jesus. Jesus insists that he is the one way for both Jews and Gentiles. Paul explains this in the early chapters of Romans. Both Jews and Gentiles need the Savior, because “all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23). Nor does this mean that the modern state of Israel plays a central role in God’s end-times plans.

Christians notoriously disagree about the details of the end times. All agree that someday Jesus will return to judge the world. Beyond this, a handful of differing views compete in the marketplace of biblical interpretation. Our Essential Tenets do not require any particular view. ECO has no official or required position. Within our church, there are several different perspectives, and our rule should be charity toward one another. We are all trying to honor God’s Word and read it correctly. We may disagree, but these disagreements are not on essential matters. That is important to remember.

I am an amillennialist. That is, I believe the thousand-year reign of Christ mentioned in Revelation 20:6 is symbolic, not literal. It represents the time from Jesus’ ascension until his return. During this time, Jesus rules. Nevertheless, during this time, his church experiences tribulation. Both can be true at the same time. Both are.

I believe that someday Jesus will return, and that will be GAME OVER. The archangel blasts the mighty trumpet of God, and that is like the referee’s final whistle signaling, “Time’s up!” At that point, the dead in Christ will be raised. Those believers still alive will be glorified. God will judge the living and the dead. And, Jesus will make all things new.

A Bridge From the Streets to the Seats

by Amy Kitchell

The usher and greeter team plays a vital role in the church. Think about it. Whether it is a first-time visitor, a regular attendee, or a long-time member, greeters and ushers are the first people anyone encounters when arriving at our doors. Their smiles and warm hearts say, "Welcome home!" From the "streets to the seats," that team is a bridge, the face of the church that helps convey who we are as a church family. We want everyone to see and feel the love of Christ while they are with us and carry that with them as they leave.

We would love for you to be a part of this important ministry! The only requirements are a love for God's people, a heart to serve, a quick smile, and a brief one-on-one training session. Serve one Sunday a month for several months or every Sunday for an entire month (or two). Sign up for whatever spots fit your schedule and as often as you'd like.

If you are interested or want more details, click the website's Volunteer tab on our homepage, select the position you are interested in, and complete the form. Someone will contact you to answer questions and coordinate the training needed to get you into that pool of volunteers.

Be a bridge! It's also a great way to meet other members and regular attendees!

Current Needs:

- ◆ 8:30 and 11:00 traditional services: ushers, greeters, and liturgists
- ◆ 9:30 contemporary service: greeters

MAKING CHRIST KNOWN AND CHANGING LIVES

AT PCPC

Mission Christmas Trees

by Rebecca Stephens

Each Advent, the PCPC Mission Committee works with local partners to provide a way for our congregation to help those in need. Ornaments with gift requests will be displayed on Christmas trees in the sanctuary narthex and the Huizenga Family Life Center lobby from November 26th to December 12th. Gift items include toys or gift cards for missions like 4KIDS, The Refuge Ranch, Dunklin Memorial Church, and The Salvation Army.

To participate, please select an ornament from the trees, purchase the item listed on the back, and return the gift(s) to the church office by December 12th. Gifts should be unwrapped with the ornament attached. A mission liaison will deliver the gifts in mid-December, along with some homemade cookies provided by our church members. This is a wonderful way to share the love of Jesus with our neighbors in a personal way.

LOCAL MISSION UPDATES

Good Samaritan Ministries

(by Jon Albright, Advisory Member)

We deeply appreciate your unwavering support and commitment to following the journeys of our recovering families. Your interest profoundly shapes their lives. Our pre- and post-recovery family extends heartfelt gratitude to those who've supported us through financial contributions, in-kind donations, business engagement, and thrift store contributions. Your generosity empowers the lost to find hope and recover from their afflictions. Within the pages of our ministry update, we witness lives transformed from brokenness to enduring renewal. We hope you find content that brings joy, offering a glimpse into the lives of our residents. Blessings from our 122 residents in recovery and 58 children.

The Refuge Ranch

(by Wanda Rosello, PCPC Liaison)

Several of our members attended a luncheon at The Refuge Ranch on Tuesday, October 10th. We all enjoyed the delicious salads and desserts, some prepared by members of PCPC and some by the residents of The Ranch. We all had a great time getting acquainted and sharing stories.

The Refuge Ranch is a residential Christian drug and alcohol regeneration ministry for adult women. It provides a home environment, biblical instruction, and work opportunities for women trapped in chemical addiction, allowing them to become new creations in Christ Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit. Through the application of the gospel to all areas of their lives, they are spiritually and emotionally healed of the pain and suffering of addiction. This healing allows their relationships to become new as well.

The average stay for the ladies in residence there is one year, a long time to be away from their families. There is an opportunity for family members to visit on the weekends, but since some of the residents are from out of state, these visits are not as frequent as the residents would sometimes like.

You're invited to the next luncheon on December 5th! PCPC members will judge the gingerbread houses the residents will have decorated. It is always a fun time. We will meet at the church and carpool to The Ranch. It is a beautiful drive through the tree canopies going out Route 714. Please email rosellow1@gmail.com for more information or to RSVP.

PCPC would like to thank the numerous staff members and residents from The Ranch who have volunteered to assist with this year's Turkey Trot at PCPC on Thanksgiving morning. We look forward to this fun event and we're thankful for your partnership!

Young Life (From Julianne McGovern)

October 20, 2023

Dear Palm City Presbyterian Church,
I am new on the YoungLife board. I am so excited about what God is doing in Martin County thru YoungLife.

Thank you for your support. We couldn't do it without you!

Kindest regards,
Julianne

RECAP OF OCTOBER

To all of the volunteers who served at our Fall Festival, you are simply the best! I am blown away by the generosity of your hearts and your willingness to serve our community. It was, once again, an amazing success! Thank you from the bottom of my heart to each of you who were there helping before, during, and after this event. This was a team effort and I am grateful to all of you. For those who spread the word about the event, thank you. To those who brought your kiddos or grandkiddos, thank you. Thank you to those who helped with food, crafts, setup, check-in, games, trunks, and rides. The church was well represented. Thank you to our generous sponsors! I also thank our PCPC staff for the work you poured into the event.

I want to give a big shoutout to one person in particular who did a ton of work behind the scenes. She hustled and was able to round up sponsors. She drummed up Chick-fil-A donations, Marco's giveaways, Culver's tokens, Stuart Ceramics crafts, and so much more. She drove all over Martin County months beforehand to get the word out and to raise support. She took over 1,000 pictures at the event and edited each. She was a HUGE help and an incredible asset. From the bottom of my heart, thank you, Dr. Rosalyn Soo Mauldin, for everything you did in the background. Your energy and efforts did not go unnoticed!

Our Couples Cafe started October 10th and is going incredibly well. Each week, we learn more about what God wants from us as husbands and wives.

We study His Word and how it applies to our roles in relation to one another. We get to enjoy a delicious meal and tasty desserts. Thank you, Cathy Coco, for being a cooking machine. Bob Shubert, thank you for always being on kitchen patrol.

Sunday school continues to bring so much joy to those of us blessed to serve our PCPC kids. We spend the morning playing, imagining, wondering, and marveling at God's big story.

We cruised through stories of Abraham and Isaac. We also studied Jacob's Ladder. We start our time by worshipping together, and it has brought additional energy to our Sunday mornings.

Kidz Klub is learning all about how God works behind the scenes to make His plan come to life. We studied the book of Esther. Queen Esther was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. She was obedient to God and His plan for her life. We learned a lot about how God is always there working in the background, and it is our job to be obedient.

THIS MONTH IN NOVEMBER

We will continue our journey through the Bible and spend the month giving thanks to God. We will hear all about Joseph. We will learn about his dreams and see how it all fits into God's Big Story!

Kidz Klub has only two weeks left to meet in November; then we meet again in February. We have enjoyed our time together playing games, singing worship songs, studying God's Word, doing crafts, and making snacks. Please see our website to register for the spring session!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Youth News

by Richie Kim,
Youth Leader

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all of the youth and young adults who volunteered at our Fall Festival! You guys rock! It was a fun and successful community outreach!

YOUTH GROUP

The Bible says in Ephesians 3:17-19, "So that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have the strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God." Family, seeing this generation go deeper into their faith and act in truth is amazing! In the past month, we implemented small groups within our youth groups, and it has been amazing to see the conversations and questions these young minds have about their faith and God. We pray for continued growth by going deeper and answering some of the hard questions about their faith.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

It's homecoming season! Gentlemen, get your suits and ties on. Ladies, put on your fancy dresses! It was an absolute sight to see the homecoming parade floats that the kids put all their efforts into creating and see the stunning prince and princess of the homecoming court in their car for the parade. But we want to see the king and queen of homecoming! Please be praying for all the students. For some, it's a step to almost finishing high school; for others, it's just a fun time. Continue to pray for the safety of these young men and women.

WHAT OUR YOUTH ARE STUDYING

High School : "The Darkroom Faith"

We have been in Darkroom Faith for the past month, and this series encourages students to ask questions and think critically about their beliefs. The Darkroom series provides a safe and engaging context for teens to explore key issues of faith. Our team has been able to see some breakthroughs in areas that some of the students have been struggling with, and to see God move in their hearts has been amazing.

Middle School: "GOAT"

This past month, we have been learning how amazing and great Jesus truly is in the time when he was wronged or accused by others. He has shown that he is the GOAT (Greatest of All Time), as the kids are saying these days. The GOAT series is grounded in the book of Matthew and helps teenagers see how Jesus is the GOAT and challenges them to live out three of his greatest teachings. Drawing from popular current debates over who or what is the GOAT, students will encounter the authority of Jesus and some of his GREAT teachings. Throughout the series, there are opportunities to cast a vision for our youth ministry as well as give students practical ways to put the Greatest Commandments, servant leadership, and the Great Commission into practice.

CALLING VOLUNTEERS!

If you have a heart for the young generation, this is the ministry you've been looking for! Our family here at PCPC Youth is always looking for people to pour into our students. How can you be a part of this? We are looking for small group leaders and others to serve in the kitchen or just hang out with these amazing students. If you are interested, please email richie@palmcitypres.org.

COLLEGE STUDENTS & YOUNG ADULTS

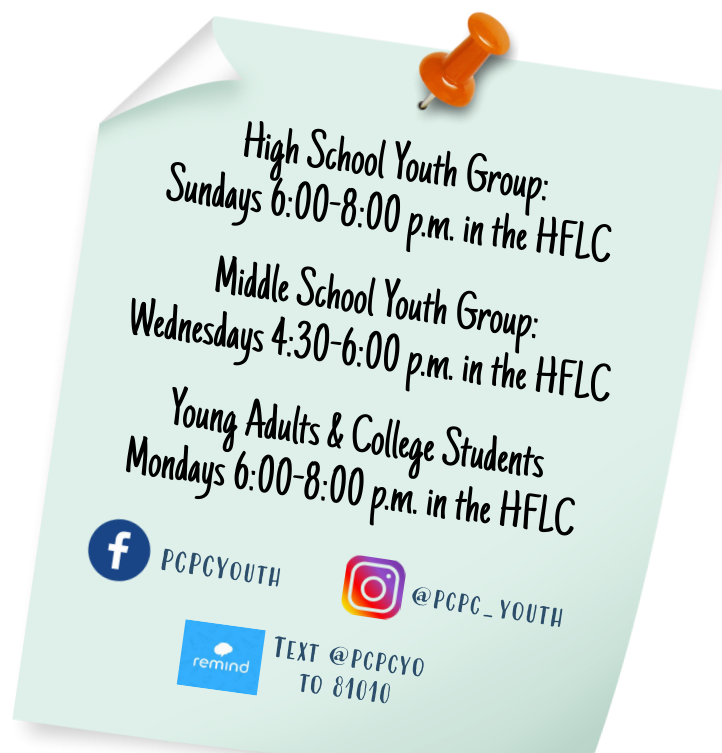

This group meets on Mondays from 6:00-8:00 p.m. in the Huizenga Family Life Center AND on the third Thursday of the month at the Pridmore's house for dinner at 6:00 p.m. Come join in! New faces are always welcome.

PCPC Member Directory

The 2023 PCPC Member Directory is almost ready. A preliminary version was emailed to participants in the last week of October. Check your inboxes for an email from Membership Committee Chair Rob Johnson. There is a PDF attachment to the email with more than 200 photos and contact information for over 400 PCPC members.

Printed versions are coming! We plan to have copies printed and made available for a purchase price of $5.00. Additions and edits are still possible, but we are almost out of time! If you're a member and not in the directory, it's not too late. If you received the draft version but want to make edits (correct a typo or update the photo), it's not too late! The deadline for updates before publishing and printing is Thursday, November 16.

If you have questions, please contact the directory team (Rob Johnson, Heather Floyd, Ruthann Hewson) at directory@palmcitypres.org.

Palm City's Got Talent!

by Joanne Raulin

"It's All About the Music!" That is our theme, and there will be many examples of talent throughout our upcoming concert. You'll hear piano and organ duets from Ginger and Joanne, some jazz from Jazzy Jim, and brilliant piano playing from the Gonzalez brothers: Giovanni, Adriel, and Julian. Don't miss the heavenly flute music of Shazkya Fernandez and dazzling Christmas music from our bell choir! To top it all off, we will experience the wonder of Christmas through the eyes of "Twinkle and the Bethlehem Star." Please put Sunday, November 5th at 3:00 p.m. on your calendar for a revue of talent from our church!

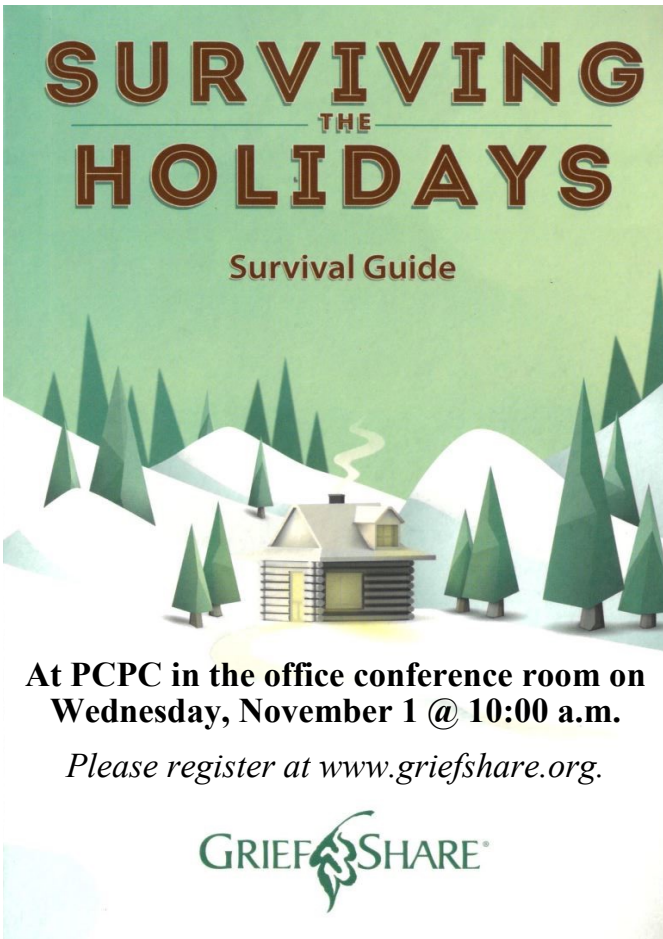

Sanctuary Service

by Judy Scott

Have you been looking for a way to serve our church? We may have just the job for you! This duty is easy and can be done any day during the week when the office is open. "Sanctuary Service" is just a matter of checking the pews in the sanctuary to be sure everything is neat, and all required materials (offering envelopes, prayer cards, etc.) are in their proper place. The office has a "mini cart" with all required materials and a typed-out instruction card.

If you are interested in signing up for "Sanctuary Service," click the Volunteer tab on the church's website, then select "Sanctuary Service" and complete the form. You can also call the church office or email Kelly Tullidge (kelly@palmcitypres.org) or Charity Maehl (charity@palmcitypres.org). The deacons appreciate your willingness to serve!

GriefShare Program

GriefShare, facilitated by Florine Blackshear, offers biblical, Christ-centered teaching that focuses on topics associated with the death of a loved one. The DVD seminar features nationally respected grief experts and real-life stories of people, followed by discussion. Many grieving people find they are only beginning the work of healing when friends or family have returned to their daily life routines. Too often, people tend to stuff their grief instead of allowing it to do the God-given work for which it is intended. Don't allow fear of what others may think to keep you from what could help you. Confidentiality is a key part of this program.

Whether your bereavement experience is recent or not, you will find encouragement, comfort, and help in grieving the death of a loved one. This is an opportunity to be around people who understand what you are feeling. You will learn how to recognize the symptoms of being stuck in grief and that you do not need to live in bondage to certain emotions. You will learn valuable information about facing your new normal in life and renewing your hope for the future. Please visit the GriefShare website (griefshare.org) or call the church office at 772-286-9958 to join in at any time.

13-week GriefShare Program
Wednesdays beginning January 10 at 10:00 a.m.

Grief SHARE®

Are the events in Israel right now signs of the end times? Yes, in a general way. Jesus said, “When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must take place, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These are but the beginning of the birth pains” (Mark 13:7-8). However, I would not try to find this war in the Bible or interpret it as the specific fulfillment of any prophecy.

Notice Jesus said, “Do not be alarmed.” God gave us the book of the Revelation to comfort us, not to terrify us! The point is God wins. Christians should live with confidence, knowing that whatever happens in history, God is working out his plan and purposes. Do not fear. Persevere. That is the message. Because we do not know when Jesus will return, we must be ready at any time. How? We are ready for his return when we are busy doing the things he has called us to do.

PCPC Prayer Breakfast

On October 28, our deacons hosted a church-wide breakfast to embrace the importance of prayer and fellowship. We heard from guest speaker and author Ava Pennington on the significance of calling on God by His names and attributes. Thank you to all who attended and volunteered at this special event!

Walk and Talk: A New Fellowship Ministry

PCPC has a new fellowship ministry! Bob Snyder loves being out in nature and walks his dogs in one of the area parks every day. He wanted to share his "secret," so he helped create our new "Walk and Talk" fellowship ministry.

Each park is God's masterpiece; we have the unique advantage of living in this beautiful area surrounded by many. If you haven't been able to enjoy them yet, you are definitely missing out on some amazing sights and sounds. Being outside and connecting with nature and others has wonderful benefits for the body, mind, and soul. You'll be exercising and releasing tension without even thinking about it as you take in the peaceful surroundings! By the end of the walk, you'll be refreshed and your spirits lifted high.

On the first Saturday of each month, Bob invites you to join the group's "Walk and Talk." They will meet at 9:30 a.m. in a different park each month. Their next walk will be on Saturday, November 4, at Peck Lake Park, 8108 SE Gomez Ave. in Hobe Sound. Join them and invite a friend! People are welcome to bring a friendly dog!
