

4KIDS - In the Treasure Coast area, hundreds of children are being removed from their homes each year, but there are not enough foster families in our community. 4KIDS exists to provide loving, Christian homes for these children, keep siblings together, and provide hope and healing to kids and teens.

Dunklin Memorial Church - This is a residential, Christ-centered program to assist men in overcoming chemical addiction. The 11-month program is where men can be rescued (from themselves and their addiction), redeemed (to a right relationship with Jesus, set free from bondage), and restored (to their families and friends) through the message of the gospel.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes - FCA seeks to make disciples through their methods of engaging, equipping, and empowering coaches and athletes to know and grow in Christ and lead others to do the same.

Good Samaritan Ministries - A faith-based organization committed to helping the homeless, the hurting, and the underprivileged with a residential recovery program, food pantry, and job training skills

Love and Hope in Action (LAHIA) - Their mission is to reach the hungry, homeless, and hurting. They demonstrate Jesus Christ's love for the homeless and indigent by meeting the basic physical and spiritual needs of all those who come through their doors.

Our Community Table - This ministry, started in 2020, brings churches and the community together to help those in need. With more than 1,800 meals weekly being served every Saturday and over 350,000 meals to date, we are working hard to end hunger in Martin County.

Place of Hope - This faith-based organization provides programs and services to children, youth, and families to end the cycles of abuse, neglect, homelessness, poverty, and human trafficking in our local communities.

The Refuge Ranch - This Christ-centered approach to recovery empowers women to embrace the journey and experience personal transformation. It is a ministry for adult women that combines biblical teaching with domestic and job-related skills in a supervised home environment.

The Salvation Army (Compassion House) - Inspired by the love of God, the mission of The Salvation Army of Martin County is to touch people with the love and compassion of Jesus Christ, to minister to our community, and to provide for their basic human needs without discrimination. Compassion House offers a safe and secure shelter, meals, clothing, and counseling for residents as they work to once again become self-sufficient.

Young Life Martin County - This Christian ministry that reaches out to middle school, high school, and college students in Martin County. They go to kids, build bridges of authentic friendship, and introduce them to Jesus Christ.
