

An illustration at the top of the page shows four hands of different skin tones (light, medium, and dark brown) reaching down from the top. Each hand is holding a bright red heart. The hands are positioned around the central text, creating a sense of unity and care.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Are you feeling called to give of your time and talent to people in need outside our church?
Consider volunteering with one of our local mission partners!

Care Net—Help with client advocacy, office administration, community outreach, or event support. Contact Sue Chess at sue@carenettc.com.

The Refuge Ranch—Share a meal and fellowship with residents at this Okeechobee recovery center. Contact Wanda Rosello at rosellow1@gmail.com.

Dunklin Memorial Church—Deliver home-baked goods and words of encouragement for their residents in recovery. Contact Zach Gilhooly at zgilhooly86@gmail.com.

Our Community Table—Help cook and serve meals to families in Martin County any Saturday. Contact Greg Wald at greg@ourcommunitytableministries.org.

Love And Hope In Action (LAHIA)—Wash dishes or help in the shower room or laundry cottage 2-3 hours once a week. Contact Jean Saco at jean@lahia.org.

The Salvation Army—Pick up and sort food donations, sort toys at Christmastime, or sort and tag donations in the Family Store. Contact Lourdes Stortz at lourdes.stortz@uss.salvationarmy.org.

Good Samaritan Ministries—Sort and tag donations at their thrift store located in Port St. Lucie. Contact Julius Bennett at juliusbennett75@gmail.com.

4KIDS—Provide a meal or childcare to a foster family, or help during their back-to-school drive or Christmas toy drive. Contact Cory O'Carroll at coryo@4kids.us.

Place of Hope—Volunteer to help in their food and supply pantries, mentor the youth in their program, or provide dinner for families in their Bible studies. Contact Denise Webb at denisew@placeofhope.com.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes—Volunteer to work with teens in school “huddles” or at special events. Contact Alexis Stuckey at astuckey@fca.org.

Young Life—Volunteer to mentor middle and high school kids in their weekly club meetings. Contact Lydia Chappell at lydchap@att.net.