Today's Message: "For Everything There is a Season..."

Seasons are changing. They always have and always will. Some are welcome and others aren't, yet they're relentless in their coming and going. What does the Bible have to say about navigating the inevitable changes in our lives?

Today's Scripture: Ecclesiastes 3:10

MESSAGE NOTES.

"Head, Heart & Hands" What's God teaching us? Speaking to us? Asking of us?

Ecclesiastes 3:11 "For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven."

1. What led to Solomon being able to pen this particular passage?

2. Name some reasons we might dislike unanticipated changes.

3. Name some of the human responses evoked by unanticipated changes.

4. Name aspects of a Biblical worldview that help us navigate change.

5. Name ways God uses change in our lives and our world.

6. How does Romans 5:3-5 speak to the changes in our lives and in our world?

FOR REFLECTION

What are your typical responses to change? Are they positive? Negative?

What have been some brutal, unwanted changes in your life? What have been the blessed and welcomed changes in your life?

What do Tim Keller's words evoke in you? "If Jesus is alive from the dead, everything is going to be OK."
