1 Samuel 26/27

1. Who tells Saul about David's whereabouts? How many troops does Saul take with him to find David? Where does Saul set up camp? What does David do? When does David go into Saul's camp? Who volunteers to go with him?

2. Where do they find Saul? What is he doing? What is next to him? Who else is there with Saul? What does David's companion offer to do? Why is he so sure? How does David respond? What does he call Saul? Who will take care of David's enemies? How did the death of Nabal earlier cement David's belief about vengeance?

3. What does David take when he leaves the camp? Why? Who sees them? Why are they protected? What does David do when he gets to the other side of the mountain? Who does David call? What response does David receive?

4. How does David respond to Abner's question? What are the responsibilities of bodyguards? What did Abner fail to do? What does Saul do when he hears David's voice? How does David respond?

5. Why does the source of Saul's hatred of David matter? What does David propose if the source is from God? What if it comes from man? How does Saul respond to David's questions? Is it a genuine response? Why or why not?

6. What does David return to Saul? What does David remind Saul? Who does David ask rescue him from his trouble? What does Saul say to David before they part ways?

7. Why does David flee to Ziklag? Why would he be afraid since Saul had just spoken so many nice things about him? Who goes with David? What does he ask Achish for? Who did this territory belong to up until this point? Why would Achish and David have such a strong alliance?

8. What territories does David raid? What does he do to the people? What does he do with the livestock? When Achish asks David about the raids, how does David respond? How does David know his ruse will work? Why does Achish trust David?
