

North Texas Lakes Trail Region
 Civil War Related Sites
 Cemeteries

Cemetery	City	County	Zone
England Community Cemetery	Seymour	Baylor	1
Oswald Cemetery	Clifton	Bosque	3
Poston - Olde Cemetery	Valley Mills	Bosque	3
Pleasant Valley Cemetery	Buffalo Springs	Clay	1
Allen Cemetery	Allen	Collin	2
Rowlett Creek Cemetery	Allen	Collin	2
Huson Cemetery	Farmersville	Collin	2
Frankford Cemetery	Frankford	Collin	2
Altoga Cemetery	McKinney	Collin	2
Bradley Cemetery	McKinney	Collin	2
Pecan Grove Memorial Park	McKinney	Collin	2
Melissa Cemetery	Melissa	Collin	2
Young Cemetery	Plano	Collin	2
Manion Cemetary	Gainesville	Cooke	1
Fairview Cemetery	Gainsville	Cooke	1
Bethel Cemetery	Coppell	Dallas	2
Cox Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Five Mile Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Freedman's Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Gavin Memorial Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Greenwood Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2

Merrell Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Pioneer Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Rylie Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Western Heights Cemetery	Dallas	Dallas	2
Keenan Cemetery	Farmers Branch	Dallas	2
Pioneer Cemetery	Garland	Dallas	2
Shady Grove Cemetery	Grand Prairie	Dallas	2
Dawdy's Ferry	Hutchins	Dallas	2
Shelton's Bear Creek Cemetery	Irving	Dallas	2
Potter Cemetery	Mesquite	Dallas	2
Z. Motley Cemetery	Mesquite	Dallas	2
Lee Cemetery	Seagoville	Dallas	2
Chinn's Chapel Cemetery	Copper Canyon	Denton	1
I.O.O.F Cemetery	Denton	Denton	1
Oakwood Cemetery	Denton	Denton	1
Swisher Cemetery	Lake Dallas	Denton	1
Smith Cemetery	Lewisville	Denton	1
Bolivar Cemetery	Sanger	Denton	1

Bridges Cemetery	The Colony	Denton	1
Myrtle Cemetery	Ennis	Ellis	3
Milford Cemetery	Milford	Ellis	3
Ovilla Cemetery	Ovilla	Ellis	3
Richardson Cemetery	Reagor Springs	Ellis	3
Red Oak Cemetery	Red Oak	Ellis	3
Bell's Chapel Cemetery	Rockett	Ellis	3
Arledge Ridge Cemetery	Bonham	Fanin	2
Moore's Chapel Cemetery	Bonham	Fanin	2
McGraw's Chapel	Honey Grove	Fanin	2
Oakwood Cemetery	Honey Grove	Fanin	2
Ladonia Cemetery	Ladonia	Fanin	2
Grove Hill	Leonard	Fanin	2
Leonard Cemetery	Leonard	Fanin	2
Lindsey-Randolph Cemetery	Randolph	Fanin	2
Burns Cemetery	Trenton	Fanin	2
Baron Cemetery	Collinsville	Grayson	2
Coffman Cemetery	Denison	Grayson	2
Hall Cemetery	Howe	Grayson	2
Preston Cemetery	Pottsboro	Grayson	2
Hendrix Cemetery	Sherman	Grayson	2
Hill Cemetery	Sherman	Grayson	2
Old Cedar Community Cemetery	Sherman	Grayson	2
West Hill Cemetery	Sherman	Grayson	2

Vittitoe Cemetery	Whitewright	Grayson	2
Athens Cemetery	Athens	Henderson	3
Meredith Campground	Athens	Henderson	3
Shelby Chapel Cemetery	Athens	Henderson	3
Old Rock Hill Cemetery	Brownsboro	Henderson	3
Red Hill Cemetery	Brownsboro	Henderson	3
Cottonwood Cemetery	Eustace	Henderson	3
Clark Cemetery	Gainesville	Henderson	3
Tool Cemetery	Tool	Henderson	3
Whitney Memorial Park	Lake Whitney	Hill	3
Granbury Cemetery	Granbury	Hood	3
Granbury Cemetery	Granbury	Hood	3
Balch-Senterwood Cemetery	Alvarado	Johnson	3
Cleburne Memorial Park	Cleburne	Johnson	3
Grandview Cemetery	Grand View	Johnson	3
Union Hill Presbyterian Church	Joshua	Johnson	3
Hillcrest Cemetery	Fourney	Kaufman	3
Fox Cemetery	Kaufman	Kaufman	3
Baker Cemetery	Kemp	Kaufman	3
Oaklawn Cemetery	Terrell	Kaufman	3
Old Cemetery of Paris	Paris	Lamar	2
Hickory Grove Cemetery	Roxton	Lamar	2
Lee Cemetery	Roxton	Lamar	2
Brushy Cemetery	Bowie	Montague	1
Perryman Cemetery	Forestburg	Montague	1
Montague Cemetery	Montague	Montague	1
Molsbee Chapel Cemetery	Nocona	Montague	1
Center Point Cemetery	Saint Jo	Montague	1
Grange Hall Cemetery	Barry	Navarro	3
Dresden Cemetery	Blooming Grove	Navarro	3
Connor Cemetery	Corsicana	Navarro	3
Modrall Memorial Park	Corsicana	Navarro	3
Oakwood Cemetery	Corsicana	Navarro	3
Eureka Cemetery	Eureka	Navarro	3
Long Prairie Cemetery	Kerens	Navarro	3

Rice Cemetery	Rice	Navarro	3
Richland Cemetery	Richland	Navarro	3
Younger Cemetery	Silver City	Navarro	3
Annetta Cemetery	Aledo	Parker	1
Hoggard-Reynolds Cemetery	Azle	Parker	1
Goforth Graves	Cresson	Parker	1
Lemley Cemetery	Lemley	Parker	1
Hiner Cemetery	Weatherford	Parker	1
Old City - Greenwood Cemetery	Weatherford	Parker	1
Spring Creek Cemetery	Weatherford	Parker	1
Zion Hill	Weatherford	Parker	1
Ambrose Fitzgerald Cemetery	Emory	Rains	2
Mount Zion Cemetery	Fate	Rockwall	2
Chalk Mountain Cemetery	Chalk Mountain	Somervell	3
Arlington Cemetery	Arlington	Tarrant	1
Johnson Station Cemetery	Arlington	Tarrant	1
Bedford Cemetery	Bedford	Tarrant	1
Benbrook Cemetery	Benbrook	Tarrant	1
Dido Cemetery	Dido	Tarrant	1
Oakwood Cemetery	Ft. Worth	Tarrant	1
Pioneer's Rest Cemetery	Ft. Worth	Tarrant	1
Ford Cemetery	Grand Prairie	Tarrant	1
I.D. Parker Cemetery	Haltom City	Tarrant	1
New Trinity Cemetery	Haltom City	Tarrant	1
Bourland Cemetery	Keller	Tarrant	1
Rodgers Cemetery	Kennedale	Tarrant	1
Cumberland Presbyterian Cemetery	Mansfield	Tarrant	1
Smithfield Cemetery	N. Richland Hills	Tarrant	1
Hood Cemetery	Southlake	Tarrant	1

White's Chapel Cemetery	Southlake	Tarrant	1
Cox Cemetary	Canton	Van Zandt	3
High Cemetery	Canton	Van Zandt	3
Hillcrest Cemetery	Canton	Van Zandt	3
Morris Cemetery	Canton	Van Zandt	3
Starr Cemetery and School	Canton	Van Zandt	3
Wesley Chapel Cemetery	Canton	Van Zandt	3
Frontier Red Hill Cemetery	Edom	Van Zandt	3
Ingram Cemetery	Edom	Van Zandt	3
Corinth Cemetary	Grand Saline	Van Zandt	3
Creagleville	Grand Saline	Van Zandt	3
Holly Springs Cemetery	Martin's Mill	Van Zandt	3
Tidmore Cemetery	Martin's Mill	Van Zandt	3
Jones Cemetary	Willis Point	Van Zandt	3
New Hope Cemetary	Willis Point	Van Zandt	3
White Rose Cemetary	Willis Point	Van Zandt	3
Riverside Cemetery	Wichita Falls	Wichita	1
Rosemont Cemetery	Wichita Falls	Wichita	1
Aurora Cemetery	Aurora	Wise	1
Deep Creek Community Cemetery	Boyd	Wise	1
Oaklawn Cemetery	Decatur	Wise	1
Preskitt Cemetery	Decatur	Wise	1
Rush Creek Cemetery	Decatur	Wise	1
Paradise Cemetery	Paradise	Wise	1
Sand Hill Cemetery	Sand Hill	Wise	1
Willow Point Cemetery	Willow Point	Wise	1

Location
FM 1790
Fm 3221
CR 3160
FM 3077
400 E. McDermott
FM 2478 (Custer Rd.)
CR 814
Briargrove Ln.
CR 912
300 Wilson Creek Pkwy.
1660 S. McDonald St.
Fannin Rd.
Ridgeview Golf Course. 2701 Ridgeview Dr.
Cooke Co.
710 Fair Ave.
601 Christi Lane
4000 Dalgree
Kiest Blvd
Lemmon Ave. at Central
3800 West N.W. Hwy.
2030 Oak Grove

4000 Merrell Rd.

Marilla and Young

Rylie between Tufts and Mulberry

1600 Ft. Worth Ave.

2600 Valley View

SH 78

Shady Grove Rd. and Hardrock Rd.

New Dawdy Ferry Rd.

1525 Hard Rock

5841 Lumley Rd.

3737 Motley Dr.

US 175 and Seagoville Rd.

Chinn Chapel Rd.

Carrol Blvd and Eagle Dr.

E. Prairie and E. Sycamore Streets

603 N. Shady Shores Rd.

328 Smith Rd.

FM 455

S. Colony Blvd.
W. Ennis Ave.
US 77
1403 Red Oak Creek DR.
US 287
SH 342
Bell's Chapel Rd. off FM 813
SH 78
FM 271
SH 34
FM 100
N. Church St.
FM 1553
Hunt St.
SH 121
SH 121
Grayson County
1000 N. Layne Dr.
3 miles west of Howe
Northwest of Pottsboro
SH 91 on Hilltop Dr.
900 W. Lamar
Campground Rd.
1304 W, Lamar

Andy Thomas Rd.
400 S. Prairieville
CR 3901
FM 1616
FM 3204
CR 3621
Eustace City
910 S. Rusk
CR 2436
Lake Whitney Dam
Moore St. and Hwy 51 North
Moore St. and Hwy. 51
205 S. Parkway
Water St. and S. Kouns St.
FM 4
FM 917 East
FM 688
CR 110
CR 4042
1001 W. Moore Ave.
5th and 6th St.
SH 137
CR 26300
FM 3043
FM 455
East of SH 175
Molsbee Chapel Rd.
US 82
FM 1290
FM 744
CR NE 0170 (private property)
N 22nd and Hackberry
North 19th St.
CR SE 3110
SH 309 and CR 3230

Rice, TX
SH 14 and Memorial Dr.
SW 3140
1283 O'Neal Ave. North
Azle
US 377
FM 920
Hiner Rd.
Front St.
FM 51
FM 2421
N. Alexander St.
FM 552
SH 67
801 Mary St.
1100 W. Mayfield
Bedford Rd. and Central Dr.
1812 Mercedes
Morris-Dido-Network Rd.
Oakwood cemetery at 700 Grand Ave.
600 Samuels Ave.
602 Fountain Parkway
1300 Cardinal Dr.
4001 NE 28th St.
Bourland Rd.
Shady Oak Dr. and Little School Rd.
Burl Rd.
Smithfield Rd and Main St.
Coventry Ln. at King's Court

FM 1709 at Pleasant Run-White's Chapel Rd.
FM 1863
CR 2520 and CR 2501
SH 19
FM 1256, Morris Cemetery Rd.
FM 1215
CR 2520
CR 4913
FM 279
FM 1255
CR 1818
CR 4403
FM 2339
Off FM 1395
CR 3415
US 80 and Post Oak Rd.
Seymour Rd.
Southwest Pkwy.
Cemetery Rd. off FM 114
CR 4227
FM 51, Preskitt Rd.
CR 2750
CR 3352
CR 4226
FM 220

Description
Several Civil War veterans are buried here, including Sgt. Thomas Fortenberry of the 21st Arkansas Infantry
The Clifton Family deeded the land over in 1877 for a public Cemetery. The final resting place for settlers and Civil Established by John Olde Family at the death of John Olde's sister. Civil War veterans are buried there.
The community of Pleasant Valley was started after the Civil War. Number of Civil War veterans are buried here.
Established in 1884 by the International Order of the Odd Fellows. The southeast corner is a slave burial ground. Civil War veterans are also interred here.
Included in 1836 land grant to Dr. Daniel Rowlett who came to Texas from Kentucky with his wife and 6 children. Baptist Church was established on Rowlett Creek which included the cemetery. Civil War veterans are buried
Family cemetery of Allen Daniel who came to Texas from Tennessee in 1847. His daughter, Tennessee P. Daniel Huson, gave the land to the community for a community cemetery. Slaves, former slaves, and pioneer families
Contains grave of John T. Coit (1829-1872) who was a lawyer from South Carolina that raised a regiment in the Dallas area. He served as colonel of the regiment.
Served the area since 1881. Confederate and Union veterans are buried here.
Part of the Ed Ward and Nancy Bradley homestead who came to Texas in the 1840's from Kentucky. Members of the Peters Colony. The south section includes a slave graveyard.
The park is on land granted to Samuel McFarland by the Republic of Texas. Known for its grove of Pecan Trees. Commemorates the pioneers of the area. Dr. James Webb Throckmorton (1825-1894) is one of the pioneers. He served as a Confederate Brigadier General during the Civil War. He was later Governor of Texas (1866 -1867) and Confederate Captain Thomas M. Scott is buried here as well as other Civil War veterans.
Sam and Patience Young came to Collin Co. from Illinois in 1842. The cemetery was established in 1847 after Patience died. Includes the graves of Civil War veterans.
Burial spot of Col. James Bourland who commanded the Border Regiment during the Civil War and was Provost Marshall of Gainesville at the time of the October, 1862 hangings.
Former mayor William O. Davis is buried here. A Georgia native, he came to Texas in 1870 and served in the Confederate Army. The cemetery began in 1854 when a tornado struck the Howe Family cabin near Gainesville. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried here. Confederate Sgt W.H.H. Addington (1840-1862) is only Civil War casualty buried here. He died from a wound suffered at the Battle of Chustenahlah in the Indian Territory.
Burial spot of Ohio native James Parrish who settled here in 1844 as part of the Peters Colony. He established a home on the Elm Fork of the Trinity River which became known as the Parrish Neighborhood.
The land was set aside by Absalom Humbard (1835-1909) and his wife Mary. Humbard was wounded and imprisoned during the Civil War. Several Civil War veterans and Dallas County pioneers are buried here.
Established in 1859 on land given by a Baptist Church (later known as 5 Mile Church). Several Confederate
A memorial to a cemetery where former slaves were buried. Highway expansion forced the removal of the Donated by James G. Garvin (1830-1897), his wife Eliza, Colonel William L. Crawford (1841-1910), and Judge M.L. Crawford (1839-1920). Several Civil War veterans are buried here including Colonel G. Swor (1834-1878) that led an assault against Union forces at the Battle of Corinth.
Part of a Republic of Texas grant called the John Grigsby League given for service at the Battle of San Jacinto. Dallas banker W.H. Gaston acquired the land in 1874 through a legal battle and founded Trinity Cemetery. Greenwood Cemetery Association assumed operation in 1896. Many prominent Dallas citizens and Civil War veterans are buried here. Among the veterans buried here are Major John H. Brown who commanded the 3rd Texas Frontier District during the Civil War. He was a prominent secessionist that served in the legislature 1855 -

This cemetery was established on the 640 acres of Elder Eli Merrell (1787-1849) who was minister of a Disciples of Christ church. Merrell's sons George and John served with the Confederate 19th Cavalry. They and other Burial spot of: 1) Nicholas Henry Darnell (1807-1885) who commanded the 18th Texas Cavalry. He served in the Republic of Texas Congress, the 1845 Statehood Convention, and the 1875 Constitutional Convention. 2) Former Dallas Mayor John McClannahan Crockett is buried here also. He opened one of the first law offices in Dallas. He also served as a Lt. Governor of Texas for two years during the Civil War. 3) Alexander Harwood (1820-1885) came to Dallas in 1844 from Tennessee. He was county clerk 1850-1880. and served as an assistant to Confederate Postmaster General John H. Reagan. Harwood represented Dallas County at 1866 State Constitution Convention. 4) Trezevant Calhoun Hawpe (1820-1863) came to Dallas county from Tennessee in 1848. He served as Sheiff, Justice of the Peace, and County Coroner of Dallas County. He was Colonel of the 31st Texas Cavalry in 1862 and was instrumental in the Confederate victory at Newtonia. He was stabbed to death by a friend after a quarrel on the county courthouse steps. 5) Mississippi native John Jay Good (1827-1882) practiced law in Alabama and came here in 1851. He was a Colonel of a Confederate Artillery Regiment and was elected Mayor of Dallas in 1880. 6) James K. Polk (1834 - 1872) was a District Attorney for Dallas in 1860. He served in the Confederate Army and was a state senator and state constitutional delegate after the War. 7) Barton Warren Stone (1817-1881) practiced law in Dallas. He came from Tennessee and commanded two Confederate Cavalry regiments.

In 1878, John Armstrong Rylie donated land for a school in southeast Dallas County. The site became a cemetery in 1889. Hartwell Bolin Cox and other Civil War veterans are buried here.

Part of the 1850's William Coombes survey. Many Dallas County pioneers and Civil War veterans are buried here. Z.E. Coombes and W.R. Fisher set aside the land for the cemetery.

Thomas Keenan (1808-1879) came here as part of the Peters Colony in 1842. Keenan's descendents along with several Civil War veterans are buried here.

Final resting place of numerous Civil War veterans and pioneers. This cemetery began in the churchyard of Duck Creek Methodist Church which was organized in the 1850's.

In 1877, Louis H. Caster (1826-1908) deeded one acre for a community cemetery. Several Civil War veterans are Illinois native Alanson Dawdy (1826-1901) operated a ferry for crossing the Trinity River. It operated during the War while Dawdy served in the Confederate Army. The prices were one dollar for a wagon with four animals, ten cents for a man and horse, and five cents for one man on foot.

The land was deeded to Chilton Smith in 1851. Along with Smith came slaveholders William Haley and William Borah before 1845. After the War, many former slaves stayed in the area. In 1879, Minnie Shelton purchased the site for $130 and donated it for a cemetery. It holds numerous burial sites of slaves and former slaves.

John P. Potter was a pioneer of the Republic of Texas and served in the Confederate Army. He had 1,000 acres of land and served as a Justice of the Peace. He and his children are buried here.

Zachariah Motley came to Texas in 1856 with his family and slaves. His daughter Penelope Motley McLain, wife of Captain J.B. McLain, is buried there along with family members and slaves.

In 1870, Mississippi native and Confederate vet James J. Lee (1820-1901) donated land for a cemetery. Several Civil War veterans are buried here as well as members of Lee's family.

Donated by Elisha and Mary Stowe Chinn in 1853. Features graves outlined with shells. A tradition brought to Cemetery for Lodge 82 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Denton Merchant James Smoot donated the land a number of Civil War veterans are buried.

Confederate Col. Thomas Gynn Cosbey Davis buried here. He was a cousin of President Jefferson Davis

Land granted to H.H. Swisher, a veteran of the Texas War for Independence. Contains numerous Civil War

Farmland sold to Masonic Lodge for a community cemetery in 1881. Former slaves of Julius Kane Fox family are buried here in unmarked graves.

Civil War veterans as well as influenza victims are buried here.

Oldest cemetery in Denton County. Donated by W.A. Bridges family. Civil War veterans are buried here as well as members of the Bridges family.
Deeded by W.H. Parsons in 1875. Confederate veterans buried here.
Donated by W.R. Hudson and J.M. Higgins in 1853. Civil War veterans buried there.
Established by Peters Colony in 1844. Civil War veterans buried there.
John I. Richardson of 12th Texas Cavalry buried here.
Began as the family burial ground of Abraham Kemble in 1860. Several Civil War veterans are buried there.
Named for Confederate veteran Jodie M. Bell who was buried there in 1877.
Alabama natives Joseph and William Arledge settled here in the 1850's. Used by the Arledge family and has numerous Civil War veterans buried here.
Missouri native Alexander Moore moved to Texas with his wife Mary Jane Jones in 1857 . They are both buried here with their descendents. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried here.
Tennessee native Ezekiel Phillips Warren organized a Methodist congregation at his home in 1859. In 1877, Kentucky native and Confederate vet William Bain McCraw donated the land for the church and cemetery.
Established in 1846 and originally known as the Walcott Graveyard. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried here. Members of the Pre Civil War slave community are buried here. Virginia native James Thomas Holt (1841-1919) served in the Confederate Army and built Honey Grove's first public water system. He owned a store and hotel in Mineral Wells. He invested in the Honey Grove Cotton Oil Mill and Planters National bank. He is buried here.
Community cemetery for the Odd Fellows Fraternity and Presbyterians. Civil War vet William Lovelace Foster (1830-1869) was pastor of the 1st Baptist Church. He is buried here along with other Civil War veterans.
Burial spot for members of Oak Hill Home Guard; a Confederate militia unit that patrolled for Indians, outlaws,
Burial spot of John Cadwallader Neale who came here from Tennessee. He served with the 9th Tennessee Cavalry before he purchased a farm in Fannin county. He was a leading businessman in the Leonard community.
Tennessee native Thomas Lindsey brought his family here in 1837. Lindsey donated the land for a school and cemetery in the 1840's. One of Lindsey's slaves was the first buried here. Several slaves and Civil War veterans are Tennessee native William Boyd Burns (1821-1907) built a log cabin at this site. Among Civil War veterans that are buried here are Dr. W.C. Holmes who fought at Shiloh and John W. Connelly a former teacher in the Indian Named after John Barron who came from Virginia in 1870. Barron and fellow Civil War vet William Jenkins are buried here. Barron gave land for a church-school building and community cemetery.
David Harman Coffman of Poindexter's Missouri Cavalry Regiment came here after War and donated land for community cemetery. Adjoining land used for the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church.
Burial spot of William Whitley Wheat and his wife Cynthia who moved to Texas from Alabama in 1842. Settled in Petters Colony. Wheat served as a county commissioner and was the first president of the Old Settlers Association of North Texas that worked to ease tensions after the Civil War. Anderson White deeded 2 acres in 1859 for the public cemetery. Number of Civil War veterans are buried here.
Confederate Colonel George R. Reeves of 11th Texas cavalry is buried here. The Tennessee native was a county tax collector, sheriff, and state representative before the War. He participated at Chickamauga and the Atlanta Campaign. He served as Speaker of the House after the War.
Burial and first camp of John and Ruth Hendrix who came to Texas in 1846 from North Carolina. Numerous slave burial sites are located here.
Burial spot of Confederate Captain John Henry Le Tellier of the 24th Virginia Infantry, Army of Northern Virginia. Beloved teacher of Sherman Private School.
Harsh pioneer life led to the establishment of this cemetery in 1848 for Grayson Co. pioneers. Plots were free. One Union and 18 Confederate veterans are buried here.
Burial spot of Jesse P. Loving (1836-1919) who served with the 34th Texas Cavalry. He was County Treasurer and State Representative from Grayson County. Helped establish the Old Settlers Association of Grayson County. Rev. John Sillman Moore is buried here. Wounded three times during his service with the Confederacy. Pastored Presbyterian Churches in Tyler, McKinney and Sherman. He died in 1903.

Began as a family cemetery for Samuel and Ellen Vittitoe who settled here in 1852. Numerous Civil War veterans buried here in 700 grave cemetery.
In service since 1857. Numerous Civil War veterans and pioneers are buried here.
An open-air tabernacle for 2,000 people. Eventually became a cemetery for Civil War veterans.
North Carolina native James Madison Shelby (1814-1989) established the Presbyterian Church and cemetery. A number of Confederate soldiers are buried here.
Consists of one acre of land. Number of Confederate Texas troopers and early settlers are buried here.
Originally a camp meeting site for the Red Hill Methodist Church. Numerous Civil War veterans buried here.
Numerous Civil War veterans buried here. Donated by William Hugh Graham who had his family cemetery here.
Grave of "Great Hanging" victim located here. Call ahead to visit grave.
Contains graves of father and son Texas Rangers. Durham Avant served in the 15th Texas Cavalry. His son William served in the 46th Alabama Infantry Regiment.
Consolidation of 6 Cemeteries because of 1950 construction of Lake Whitney Dam.
Resting place of Brigadier General Hiram Granbury and family.
General Granbury and his family are buried here along with numerous Confederate and Union veterans.
Est in 1856 for African American slaves. Also called Alvarado "Colored Cemetery."
Union and Confederate veterans buried here. In 1894, C.Y and Ann Kouns donated land for a Confederate Park. The intent was to have the roads cut through the park and shape it into the confederate flag.
Civil War veterans buried there. Part of 1,400 acres purchased by James F. Scurlock then sold to Town of Established in 1850 for cotton farming community. Civil War veterans buried there.
Fourney was originally a railroad town and the cemetery was set aside for the entire community. $^ Civil War veterans are buried here.
Burial spot of Captain Israel Baker that helped write Texas Constitution. Served with the Texas 3rs Cavalry, Co. G.
Family cemetery of John and Eliza Baker. Several Civil War veterans are buried here.
Tennessee native and surveyor Robert Terrell is buried here. He served with the 33rd Texas Cavalry Co. K. The City of Terrell was plotted on the land he surveyed. General John Summerfield Griffith (1829 - 1901) is buried here also. He commanded the 6th Texas Cavalry and saw action at Chustenahalah, Indian Territory, Pea Ridge and Holly Springs. Came to Texas in 1839 and was a rancher, cotton farmer and businessman.
Located on land owned by George Washington Wright (1809-1877) who founded Paris. Honors members of the 9th Texas that died in a measles epidemic.
Hickory Grove Methodist Episcopal Church was established here in 1852. Includes 1,000 graves. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried here.
Family cemetery of Lee J. Lee Family that was from Virginia. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried here.
Settlement of area started after Civil War. Numerous Civil War veterans buried here.
In 1883, Levi Perryman purchased the cemetery land for Montague County. He was a sheriff of Forestburg and served with the 31st Texas Cavalry. Dory Booher and Benjamin Stead of the 14th Texas Cavalry are buried there.
Used during the Civil War. Texas Rangers and Civil War veterans are buried here.
Started by Rev. Abraham Molsbee and his wife Susan who came to Texas from Tennessee. John P. Watson of 43rd Georgia and Fulton Loe Jr. of 28th Louisiana are buried here. Both were civic leaders of Nocona.
Site of Baptist Church built there in the late 1800's. Several Civil War veterans buried here.
Used by pioneers from Meridian, MS that settled nearby in 1870. Numerous Civil War veterans buried here.
Located near Indian Trading Post. Named after Dr. W.S Robinson, the town's first doctor, and Jacob Hartzell, the owner of the trading post. Established in 1841.
Named after Thomas Conner who settled here in 1856 from Illinois.
Deeded on April 12, 1865 by Col. Roger Q. Mills C.S.A. Several Civil War veterans buried there.
Oldest cemetery in Navarro County and resting place of numerous prominent Civil War veterans and pioneers.
Began in 1840. Numerous Civil War veterans buried there.
Civil War veterans buried there. Site includes Long Prairie School and Long Prairie Methodist Church.

Named after William M. Rice, the founder of Rice University. He donated 5,000 acres for the town. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried here.
Provided by the estate of William Marsh Rice. Civil War veterans buried there.
Originally a family cemetery of Jane and Alexander Younger. Numerous Civil War veterans are buried there.
Burial spot of A.B. Fraser, a Confederate soldier who went into exile in the Honduras after the War for 5 to 6
Confederate widow Sarah Hoggard gave a plot from her family site to bury the child of former slaves.
John Goforth of 15th Texas Cavalry is buried here.
Used by members of the pioneer Lemley Family since the mid 1850's. Five Civil War veterans and early pioneers
Established in 1872. Seven Civil War veterans are buried here.
Boze Ikard, a former slave from Mississippi, was killed by Indians on Charles Goodnight's cattle drive to Colorado. Goodnight and his son brought his body back over 600 miles to be buried here. S.W.T. Lanham, the last Confederate veteran Texas Governor is buried here. The largest number of Civil War soldiers in Parker County are Burial site of many Confederate veterans from S. Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, and Texas units.
Eight Civil War veterans buried here.
Ambrose Fitzgerald served the Confederacy and settled here in 1846. Served as district clerk, county clerk and Baptist Preacher in Rains County. Baptized James Hogg who later became a noted governor.
Established on property of John and Martha Dewees who migrated here from Indiana in 1856. Cemetery included a log schoolhouse and church. Numerous Civil War veterans buried here.
Deeded over to county by Confederate veteran Hiram B. Rodgers. Civil War veterans buried there.
Encompasses more than 10 acres of land. Includes the Old Arlington Cemetery, W.W.McNatt Cemetery, Masonic Cemetery, and Old City Cemetery.
Established in 1840 as a ranger station and trading post. Numerous Civil War veterans and Tarrant co. pioneers
Burial site of 19 Civil War veterans and pioneers of Tarrant Co.
Burial spot of James M. Benbrook who settled here in 1876 after the War. The town was then called Mercedes. He served with the 40th Illinois Infantry that was assigned to the Union Army of the Tennessee. He was wounded in the hip and spent six years on crutches. He became a prominent landowner and helped bring the Texas and Pacific Railway line through Mercedes. The town was renamed Benbrook in his honor.
Dempsey S. Holt donated 30 acres for this cemetery in 1887. Dr Isaac L. Van Zandt, a Confederate vet, donated additional land. Several Civil War veterans are buried here.
Burial spot of General Thomas Waul and John Peter Smith.
Dr. Adolphus Gouenant set aside a 3 acre burial site when his friend Major Ripley A. Arnold lost two children in 1850. Many pioneers are buried here along with 75 Civil War veterans.
Kentucky native Pinkney Harold Ford (1831-1901) came to Texas in 1855 and served with a Texas Confederate Cavalry unit. He purchased the property in 1879 for use as a community cemetery.
During the Civil War, Isaac Duke Parker (1821-1902) served as a Tarrant County Commissioner before enlisting in the Confederate Army. He assumed ownership of this cemetery and donated the eastern half as a public
After Reverend Greene Fretwell, a former slave, died in 1886. His widow Frances purchased 2 acres for a church and cemetery for African Americans in Haltom City.
North Carolina, Civil War vet, and Primitive Baptist Preacher Aurelius Delphus Bourland settled here in 1873. He used this site as a family cemetery until 1899 when he donated 2.5 acres for a public burial ground.
Georgia native Thomas F. Rodgers (1835-1906) came to Texas from Kansas in the late 1850's. He served in the Confederate Army and became one of Kennedale's leading landowners. Part of his land was set aside for this cemetery. He was a successful farmer and stock raiser.
First used after the Civil War and includes Civil War veterans. Victims of the 1918 influenza epidemic are buried Missouri native Eli Smith (1848-1879) came to Texas in 1859. He donated part of his farm for the cemetery in 1870. Confederate and Union veterans are both buried here.
Established on the farm of Peter's Colonist and Missouri native Thomas M. Hood (1823-1859). Several Civil War veterans are buried here.

This cemetery began in 1851 with the burial of a child from a wagon train. Numerous early pioneers and Civil War veterans are buried here.
Rober K. Gibbs settled in area in 1850's. The buried their infant daughter at the cemetery. Includes numerous Samuel A. High (1809-1894) was the 1st landowner in area and donated the land for the cemetery. Numerous Civil War are buried here.
Van Zandt County pioneers and Civil War veterans are buried here.
Burial sites of pioneers that died during epidemics and Civil War veterans.
James F. Starr donated land for a schoolhouse here in 1886. Confederate vet Joseph Staley and othe Civil War veterans are buried here.
Watkins community settled in the mid-1800's. The graveyard contains Civil War veterans among 400 graves.
Among 188 grave, 6 Civil War veterans are buried here. Included are Samuel Murphy, David Tumlinson, Robert Boykin, Thomas Piles, F.M. Shirley and Robert Beam.
Stephen Ingram moved to Van Zandt County in 1850. He was buried first at this site along with his 2 sons who were Civil War veterans.
Deeded in 1886 by James Richardson whose land grant the town was developed on. Renowned pilot Wiley Post is buried here along with 6 Civil War veterans.
Creagleville was settled in the 1840's. 50 Civil War veterans are buried here along with early pioneers.
Donated in 1860 by Robert K. Gibbs for the Holly Springs Methodist Episcopal Church South. Original pioneers of Martin's Mill and Civil War veterans are buried here.
Levi collins purchased the land from pioneer L.H. Hobbs who settled here in 1850. Collins buried his son in law John Tidmore who died of disease during the War. His wife Marta Elizabeth is buried next to him alon with 12
Started in 1870's for Van Zandt County pioneers. Sgt M.M. (Mike) Robinett (1842-1900)of 10th Texas Cavalry Co. Set aside by William James (1804-1875). Four Confederate veterans that were at Appamatox are buried here. They include D.G. Baker, W.N. Canant, J.T. Ellis, and A.M. Fears.
Established in 1870. Number of Civil War veterans are buried here.
87 Confederate veterans buried here including the sister of Jesse James, Susan Parmer.
7 Confederate veterans are buried here.
Confederate vet, Finis Dudley Beauchamp, from Mississippi donated the 3 acre site. Beauchamp and other Civil War veterans are buried here.
Along with early frontier settlers of Wise County, several Civil War veterans are buried here.
Randolph "Uncle Ram" Vesey, popular fiddler and aide to Confederate General William Lewis Cabel is buried here. Born a slave near Savannah, GA.
Union Army vet and school trustee James W. Haynes is buried here along with other Civil War veterans.
110 graves in which half belong to people under the age of 20. Victims of disease. Numerous Civil War veterans Includes grave of Dr. M.W. Matthews who was born in Kentucky and was an army surgeon during the Texas Revolution. He treated Sam Houston's wound at the Battle of San Jacinto. A firm Unionist during the Civil War, he escaped being hanged by Confederate vigilantes.
Meeting spot for pioneers because of the spring. Numerous gravesites of pioneers and Civil War veterans.
Cemetery was founded when Samuel G. Evitts allowed Anna M. English to be buried on land he owned in 1882. The cemetery became a free cost community cemetery where pioneers and Civil War veterans are buried.