From the Youth Minister - Dillon Fox

Church Family,

I can't believe it's already October! We had See You At The Pole this last month and God did an amazing work in our kids! He has been moving in their hearts and has begun a work that only He can do in them. Our teenagers have a lot on their plate lately. Many of them have something school related every night, from homework to practices. The majority of them deal with stress often and can often feel as though they are the only one who struggles with it. If you are reading this, I pray you begin to invest in the lives of the teenagers of this town. Our teenagers need someone to tell them they aren't alone, that there's someone who loves them even if they mess up. God has placed an amazing group of young people in our midst and we as adults are called to show them Jesus is better. I pray this month that you'd find a teenager and encourage them in their faith. I pray you take the time to know their name, to regularly check in on them and eat with them.

Matthew 12:34 tells us "for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks." What we say exposes what is in our heart. In other words, who we are is exposed by what we say. The question that has been on my mind is what is the condition of my heart? What am I pursuing and feeding my heart? What we spend time doing and what dominates our thoughts is what our heart will begin to look like. Whatever we spend our time doing will influence what we do and what we say. I pray we begin to fix our eyes on Jesus and what He has done for us. I pray our words and actions declare to Seymour that Jesus really is better.

In Him, Dillon
