Returning Blues

It's perfectly normal for preschoolers to have a little trouble readjusting to the school routine after our two-week Christmas Break. But don't worry! While there might be a few tears or protests, the adjustment this time will be much quicker than it was at the start of the school year. As always, consistency is key. Share your enthusiasm about school and friends, and let our wonderful staff support you and your child through any post-holiday blues. We're here to help make the transition as smooth as possible!

tuition Tuition Due by January 9th

There will be a short window to get your tuition payment in on time when we return from our Christmas break. The good news is that you're able to pay tuition online so you'll be able to avoid the late fees that will go into effect on the 10th!

i have a dream! Martin Luther King Jr. Day

FNS will be closed on Monday, January 19th in observance of MLK Day.

Peace

The Fruit of the Spirit we'll talk about this month is Peace. The book the children will hear as an example of peace is Five Minutes Peace by Jill Murphy. "God blesses those who work for peace, for they will be called children of God." Matthew 5:9

Extended Care

Don't forget about our Extended Care Program, available Monday-Friday from 12-2:30 pm. This is a fun and enriching time for children to enjoy lunch, social activities, and extra outdoor play in Room D with Mrs. Pinkerton. If you're interested in signing your child up or would like more information about availability, please let me know. Families choose specific days and children bring a nut-free lunch from home.
