

Contradicting Hardships

Gary Miller

“When you find yourself in the midst of a difficult period in life, whether it’s a physical problem or a financial problem, or even the loss of a loved one; at its core the problems almost all have the same response; “This isn’t the way it was supposed to be, or this isn’t the way I had it planned.”

The Bible offers great help for us to endure difficult times and still retain our faith, but God wants us to do more than endure; He wants us to thrive, even in the midst of hardship, with an attitude of encouragement for everyone around us. In this series we will be taking a closer look at Paul’s letter to the Philippians, because we see that amazing attitude of encouragement from Paul, certainly as he travels and preaches the Gospel, but even while he is chained in a Roman prison awaiting a trial that will ultimately either release him from prison, or cost him his life.”

Less Fortress, More Porch: Home and Biblical Hospitality

Steve Yeaton

Hospitality is one of the best ways to live out the two greatest commandments: loving God with all your heart and your neighbor as yourself. But often we get caught up in perfecting our homes and conversations before we open our doors.

Jesus should be your model for hospitality. Learn to replace cultural expectations with biblical hospitality to create a legacy of invitation and reflect Jesus through simple acts of service.

The Story: Jesus

Dj Butcher

This is a group for families! Parents and their kindergarten through middle school kids are invited to take part in a Family style Bible study that is facilitated by a leader. We will have hands on learning experiences, table discussions, funny videos, and relationship building! Families will stay together at tables for talks and activities. For registration purposes, please register the name of which grown up(s) will attending as well as the kid’s names and grades. No cost!

Wisdom Practices

Steve Newton

The goal of this group is to help participants apply biblical principles to real world, everyday problems. There are applications the participants take home and practice during the week (and in the future) to help them continue to mature in their wisdom practice.

Job: A Story of Unlikely Joy by Lisa Harper

Women's Group

Joy is the constant companion of the woman who trusts in the Lord. While you can find it in friends, family, and circumstances, unflinching, persistent joy will only ever overflow from your relationship with Jesus.

In this study, learn to view pain as a way to strengthen your faith, point others to the gospel, and trust in the Lord. His providence will never take you to a place where His grace will not sustain you.

Marriage Built to Last

Dan & Diana Boyer

Money, in-laws, sex, arguments ... we all want a healthy, loving marriage, but there are so many real issues that can stand in the way.

Research has shown that over 50% of marriages are ending in divorce. This series is designed to tackle the common issues couples are facing in their marriages today.

Marriage: Built to Last isn't your typical marriage study. Throughout the series, you'll watch 24 real life couples from across the country share candidly about their struggles in communication, finances, sexual intimacy, expectations, and more. "This class will provide a safe and interesting environment for working together with your spouse to strengthen your marriage."
