ABOUT PASTOR DEBORAH J. CHAMBERS

Reverend Chambers is a godly woman whose passion for ministry is birthed out of Luke 12:48: "To whom much is given, much is required." Giving is one of her motivational gifts, and she strongly believes that all she's been given should be poured back into the Kingdom of God and the lives of others. Her sincere desire is to be used as broken bread and poured-out wine for the body of Christ.

Reverend Chambers passionately loves teaching and preaching the Word of God and has spoken at a variety of conferences, workshops and study groups on topics that range from biblical finances and good stewardship to street evangelism and salvation.

She has been a presenter for groups such as the Citygate Network (formerly the Association of Gospel Rescue Missions), the One & All Leadership & Development Conference and Howard University Hospital. She is a licensed chaplain, member of the Association of Professional Fundraisers and the founder and lead minister for the Third Sunday Ministry Team.

Reverend Chambers was most recently an active member and associate pastor with the First Baptist Church of Glenarden under the leadership of Pastor John K. Jenkins, Sr., where she has served as chaplain for the ministerial staff and Homemakers Ministry, facilitator for the Queen Esther Ministry, campaign manager for the church's "Mind To Build" capital campaign and lead writer for several of the church's annual devotional booklets. She also participates in the church's evangelism and women's ministries and has served on short term mission trips to the Philippines, Ukraine and India.

Reverend Chambers is Vice President of Development and Partnerships at Central Union Mission, a DC Christ-centered nonprofit serving people experiencing homelessness and poverty, where she's served in ministry since 2008.

Reverend Chambers is the devoted wife of Reverend Alan K. Chambers. Their son Alan Perry is 19 years old and in college. They also have two adult daughters, Kim and Denise. Reverend Chambers enjoys studying the Word of God, pastoral counseling, running, painting and watching endless reruns of the old television series Columbo.

WORDS FROM PASTOR DEBORAH J. CHAMBERS

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

I give all glory, honor and praise to the God of all Creation. To Him who was, who is and who is to come, thank you, Jesus!

I never would have imagined that our Father could use someone as broken, unworthy, wounded and crippled as me to serve in this position of honor, responsibility and service. I am completely humbled and in awe by His tender grace and never-ending mercy shown toward me.

Despite my frailties, I trust that the Lord who has brought me thus far—who's led me, kept me, protected and favored me—will continue to do so. I commit all that I have to this process, this position and this pastorate. Yes, I learned the art of the "p's" from my pastor, John K. Jenkins, Sr.

All those who have gathered virtually or in person today mean so much to me. I'm thrilled and honored to have so many friends surrounding me. Thank you!

Thank you to the leadership, search committee and members of Calvert County Baptist Church. I am not ashamed to admit that I have fallen in love with you. Thank you for receiving me and loving me. I'm excited, confident and grateful for all that God has in store for us. I don't believe He brought us this far just to leave us.

I'm grateful for all who've served to shape and mold me over the years: from my friends at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church with whom I feel I've seen the world, to my colleagues at Central Union Mission who've loved me with a steadfast spirit, to FBCG and my father in ministry, Pastor John K. Jenkins, Sr. One of the greatest honors of my life has been to serve under his leadership. Thank you, Pastor Jenkins. Your wisdom is priceless.

I'm grateful to my friends who have encouraged me all my life. Thank you, Bonnie. And to all my friends in ministry and life, I am eternally grateful.

Finally, to my beloved husband I say, "Thank you!" Thank you for believing in me, for protecting me, for encouraging me, for trusting me, for leading me, for sacrificing for me—and most of all—thank you for loving me. To my precious son, thank you for your spirit of humility, your love of God, your compassion for others, your sense of fairness, your brilliant mind and your kind heart. The world will be blessed because of who you will yet be. I'm honored to be your mom.

Twenty years ago, before I was even licensed to preach the Gospel, a pastor prophesied to me that I thought God had forgotten me, that I thought He'd put me on the shelf and wasn't paying any attention to me. He told me, "No, God hasn't forgotten you. He's just saving you." Well, CCBC, here I am! You are who God's been saving me for, and I can't wait to get started. Let's do this, and let God be glorified in all we do.

In Him alone,

Pastor Deb

WORDS FROM PASTOR'S HUSBAND

Dear Deborah,

Psalm 37:4-5 says, "Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord, trust also in Him, And He shall bring it to pass."

Your desire to serve the body of Christ in a more meaningful way has come to pass in Prince Frederick, Md., at Calvert County Baptist Church. Obviously, in my unbiased opinion, the church made the most exceptional choice. To many, you will be known as pastor and angel of this house. I know and continue to know you as my spouse, my sister and my heir together of the grace of life.

When we considered marriage as the will of God for our lives, you made a profound statement that you do not marry someone you can live with but rather someone you cannot live without. The people of Calvert County Baptist Church and beyond will encounter my life without experience as they get to know you as pastor, sister and friend. I continue to thank our heavenly Father for joining us together in marriage. I am the better man for it.

As my sister in Christ, it does not escape me that you are most gracious, kind and hospitable to all. And with passion, knowledge and diligence you attend to your obligations as it relates to the study and presentation of the Word of God in spirit and in truth. After more than two decades of life with you, I can attest that you continue to serve God fully regardless of circumstances of this present life.

We often speak of being foxhole buddies —that is if we had to engage in battle, we would like each other's presence in the fight. Well, now we are engaged at a superior level in the battle for the souls of men, women and children. As heirs together of the grace of life, I am so proud of you for allowing God to position you for our next stop on our remarkable journey to eternity.

Deborah, you have my unwavering love and support as husband, brother and heir of the grace of life.

In His Service,

Reverend Alan Keith Chambers

Reverend Alan Keith Chambers

WORDS FROM PASTOR'S SON

Dear Mom,

I'm so proud to call you my mom. You are really my best friend in the whole wide world. We have been laughing together as long as I can remember. You have always been at my side, whether to cry with me or laugh with me. I will never forget the times we had on vacation or watching Big Brother or even when you're yelling at me 😊. Anyway, I feel you are the most loving, caring mother that I could ask for and I want to say THANK YOU!!!

Just wanted to say I am so incredibly proud of you as someone who has seen you work from the inside out and as your friend. I don't know how I knew it, but I knew a change was coming. When you told me what was about to happen, that you were to be pastor of a church, it took me a minute to digest it. Mostly, I was so happy for you and how God is making your dreams come true. Secondly, I was trying to figure out how I could help you on this new journey. I'll support you, pray for you and always be your loving son. You can count on me, Mom!

Love your son,

Alan P. Chambers

WORDS FROM CCBC ELDERS & DEACONS

Elder Nate

I thank God that Elder Henry took the lead role of supporting the pulpit committee as they began their search for a new pastor. I was pleasantly surprised that the committee selected a female candidate for pastoring CCBC, for what is traditionally a male position. After reviewing Reverend Chambers' achievements and qualifications with Elder Henry, he pointed out additional character traits that seem to benefit the church during this time in its history. After much prayer, I came to the same conclusion.

After Reverend Chambers was confirmed as the new pastor of CCBC, she wasted no time in reestablishing the character traits of a loving and caring church. With her high energy sermons such as: "We're Going to Make It," "Normalizing Forgiveness," "Just Keep Going," "Unify the House," "Overcoming the Obstacles to Great Faith" and "Things Are Going to Be Different."

With the short time that I have come to know Pastor Chambers, she has shown her willingness to love others, her dedication to hard work, and she is not easily swayed from what is right for the "kingdom God."

Pastor Chambers, I am genuinely excited to see what God has instore for us at CCBC under your leadership.

Sincerely and with heart-felt support,

Elder Nathaniel L. Scott, Sr.

Deacon Mary

As I look back over the history of Calvert County Baptist Church, I have learned that God allows things to change for reasons we may never understand. And each change propels us forward on a new journey personally, and as a church family. Each experience has given insight, spiritual growth, wisdom and better understanding.

Pastor Chambers, I am so excited that God allowed you to be selected to lead CCBC forward! I trust the Lord will put on your heart the vision and plans needed to help His people and the community!

Thank you for answering the call to become senior pastor of CCBC. I believe that you will be supported, encouraged, and surrounded with the love of Christ from those who are willing to learn and grow on the journey ahead. It is with joy and gladness that we welcome you, Reverend Alan Chambers and your family, as members and leaders of Calvert County Baptist Church!

Inspired to Serve,

Deacon Mary Scott

Deacon Debbie

Pastor Chambers, I am so excited about how God is using you for His Glory in the lives of His people. I know that greatness is ahead for Calvert County Baptist Church through your leadership. We are so blessed to have you as our shepherd. In the few weeks that you have been our pastor; you have embraced us and shown so much love to us. I thank God for your love of God and His word that you proclaim each week.

We are grateful to God for the vision He has given you for Calvert County Baptist Church and the wisdom and knowledge to bring it to completion.

I celebrate you today and welcome you and Rev. Alan Chambers to the Calvert County Baptist Church family and community.

Love and many blessings,

Deacon Debora Jones Harris

"And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding." Jeremiah 3:15

GUEST SPEAKER, PASTOR JOHN K. JENKINS

Pastor John K. Jenkins, Sr. has been preaching the Good News since he was licensed as a minister in 1973 at 15 years old. From an early age, he developed a love for the Lord and felt a call to share the gospel of Jesus Christ.

His pastoral journey began in February 1987 when he was called to serve as the senior pastor at Union Bethel Church in King George, Va. Nearly three years of pastoring at Union Bethel proved to be the training ground for his upcoming assignment. In October of 1988, Pastor Jenkins learned of the passing of his pastor and mentor, Dr. John W. Johnson, from his home church at the First Baptist Church of Glenarden.

One year after Dr. Johnson's passing, Pastor Jenkins returned to First Baptist to become the seventh shepherd. The fruit of his biblically based teaching is evidenced in the growth of church membership from 500 to more than 10,000. Today, an average 11,000 people attend weekly Sunday services between two campuses located in Landover and Upper Marlboro, Md.

With the support of his wife, Trina, and their loving family, Pastor Jenkins is able to expand his ministry beyond the walls of First Baptist. In addition to his role as senior pastor, he is the board chairman for Project Bridges and The Skinner Institute. The Skinner Institute was founded in 1992 by the late Reverend Tom and Dr. Barbara Skinner. He also serves as a board member for Denver Seminary, the Greater Prince George's Business Roundtable, the National Association of Evangelicals and University of Maryland Capital Region Health. For two years, Pastor Jenkins served as vice president/executive director of National Ministries with Converge Worldwide. He was formerly on the boards of Great Dads, Teen Challenge and a local bank.

Under the leadership of Pastor Jenkins, First Baptist founded SHABACH! Ministries, Inc., a 501 (c) 3 arm of the church in 1996. Today he serves as chairman emeritus for SMI, which provides clothing, food, education and other resources in the Washington, D.C., area.

He has traveled across the world preaching and teaching about the love of Jesus Christ. And after pastoring at First Baptist since 1989, he remains steadfast in his quest to "develop dynamic disciples."

He is recognized as a catalyst to help individuals grow into lifelong Christian disciples who follow Jesus Christ. Pastor Jenkins believes that these individuals will impact the world on behalf of the Lord, thereby strengthening families and healing broken hearts along the way.

In 2001, Pastor Jenkins received an honorary Doctorate of Divinity from Southern California School of Ministry in Inglewood, California. After becoming a licensed pilot in 2002, he takes great delight in flying.

Even with his many obligations, Pastor Jenkins holds his role as family man as the highest treasure. He and his wife are the proud parents of six children and six grandchildren.

Know The Truth International Ministries, Inc. is a 501(c) (3) non-profit, non-denominational Christian organization that mobilizes, trains and equips individuals and churches for short-term missions.

Our objective is to mobilize and equip the church for missions by bringing the mission field to the church's doorstep. KTT has trained hundreds of individuals who have ministered in various countries around the world. KTT gives groups experiences that transform the way they live back home. We work with the church as a partner to find the right combination of ministry to accommodate its objectives.

This ministry is multi-faceted and includes prayer, teaching, preaching, door-to-door evangelism, open air crusades, economic development and reconstruction of churches, buildings, schools and homes.
