

1. When you think of church do you think more about the church's seating capacity or sending capacity? Why? When you think about being a missionary do you think more about the nations or your neighborhood? Why?
 2. Read John 1:14 and Philippians 2:5-11. Who is God?
 3. Read Luke 4:17-21 and John 3:17. What has God done?
 4. Read John 20:19-23; Mark 6:7-13; John 17:15; Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 13:2-3. Reflecting on these passages, who are you?
 5. Read 1 Corinthians 19:9-23 (in the Message) 2 Corinthians 5:17-20. What do we do?
 6. Do you see yourself daily as a SENT missionary? Why or why not?
 7. Where has God sent you? Who are your neighbors who don't know Jesus? Who are the people in your network of friends who don't know Jesus? Who in your school or your workplace doesn't know Jesus, or is far from Jesus?
 8. How are you showing the gospel through your life? How are you sharing the gospel?
 9. As you think back over the sermon or your group discussion, what particular truth resonated with you? How will you live differently in light of that new understanding?
- PRAYER - Father, I give you thanks for sending Jesus, who had no sin to be sin for me, in order that I may be righteous in Him. Thank you for making me a new creation in Christ. Jesus, I receive the call to be sent as you were sent into the world, to be your ambassador in my everyday rhythms of life. I renounce the lies of Satan that say I am unqualified, disqualified, unworthy, and don't know enough to show and share your love to my friends, family, neighbors, co-workers and/or school mates. You made me worthy by Your presence in my life, and greater are You that is in me that he who is in the world. Teach me to see people as you see people and cast away any fear I have of people's response to showing and sharing your good news with them. Lord, Jesus, here am I, give me the boldness and compassion to live as a sent missionary daily. Amen.

PREPARE FOR NEXT SUNDAY, MARCH 3

How has God encouraged you, challenged you, refreshed you, opened your eyes to live out of your God-given identity over the past month? During this series we have all been challenged to live in and out of our God-given identity. We have discussed our identity as: Significant (created in God's image), Saint (not a sinner), Son/ Daughter/ Child of God (not an orphan), Servant of all (not a slave to sin), and Sent (as an everyday missionary). From these five identities, which one of them has most impacted your life?

Come next Sunday ready to declare and maybe even share what that identity is for you. "They triumphed over Satan by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony ..." Revelation 12:11.

1. When you think of church do you think more about the church's seating capacity or sending capacity? Why? When you think about being a missionary do you think more about the nations or your neighborhood? Why?
 2. Read John 1:14 and Philippians 2:5-11. Who is God?
 3. Read Luke 4:17-21 and John 3:17. What has God done?
 4. Read John 20:19-23; Mark 6:7-13; John 17:15; Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 13:2-3. Reflecting on these passages, who are you?
 5. Read 1 Corinthians 19:9-23 (in the Message) 2 Corinthians 5:17-20. What do we do?
 6. Do you see yourself daily as a SENT missionary? Why or why not?
 7. Where has God sent you? Who are your neighbors who don't know Jesus? Who are the people in your network of friends who don't know Jesus? Who in your school or your workplace doesn't know Jesus, or is far from Jesus?
 8. How are you showing the gospel through your life? How are you sharing the gospel?
 9. As you think back over the sermon or your group discussion, what particular truth resonated with you? How will you live differently in light of that new understanding?
- PRAYER - Father, I give you thanks for sending Jesus, who had no sin to be sin for me, in order that I may be righteous in Him. Thank you for making me a new creation in Christ. Jesus, I receive the call to be sent as you were sent into the world, to be your ambassador in my everyday rhythms of life. I renounce the lies of Satan that say I am unqualified, disqualified, unworthy, and don't know enough to show and share your love to my friends, family, neighbors, co-workers and/or school mates. You made me worthy by Your presence in my life, and greater are You that is in me that he who is in the world. Teach me to see people as you see people and cast away any fear I have of people's response to showing and sharing your good news with them. Lord, Jesus, here am I, give me the boldness and compassion to live as a sent missionary daily. Amen.

PREPARE FOR NEXT SUNDAY, MARCH 3

How has God encouraged you, challenged you, refreshed you, opened your eyes to live out of your God-given identity over the past month? During this series we have all been challenged to live in and out of our God-given identity. We have discussed our identity as: Significant (created in God's image), Saint (not a sinner), Son/ Daughter/ Child of God (not an orphan), Servant of all (not a slave to sin), and Sent (as an everyday missionary). From these five identities, which one of them has most impacted your life?

Come next Sunday ready to declare and maybe even share what that identity is for you. "They triumphed over Satan by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony ..." Revelation 12:11.