

1. What has most shaped how you answer the question "Who am I?"
2. Have you ever had a situation where the question of "Who am I?" felt unclear or in question because of a change in your circumstances or understanding? How did you experience shape or change you?
3. Read Genesis 1:26-27. What is significant about being made in the image of God? How does it differentiate humans from the rest of God's creation? How does it affect how you view yourself and others?
4. As people made in God's image, we look to God to understand who we are. What are some aspects of God's character that humans are meant to imitate? What attributes belong to him alone?
5. How does being created in God's image bring dignity, value and worth your life and others?
6. What does it look like to live as imitators of God in our daily lives?
7. How would you answer the following questions based on Genesis 1 & 2. Why is it imperative to answer these questions in sequential order?

Who is God? _____

What has God done? _____

Who are you? _____

What do you do? _____

8. How does centering our identity in being created in God's image provide stability to our sense of self, even as seasons and circumstances change? What truths about being created in the image of God are unchanging?

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

Ephesians 2:10 ESV
