The seasons move on. As I write these words for “the Voice,” we have finished up the Lenten observances and the joyous celebration of Easter. And what a celebration it was! LCOS outdid itself in all the decorations and music and the Easter brunch and the chancel dramas and ... and ... and! I could go on and on. In fact, the many different activities of the last two months have been so focused on Lent and Easter, it feels rather odd to now change focus and move on to other themes as the seasons indeed move on.

It occurs to me as I write this that one of the special features of Easter is that it is what is called a “movable feast.” And I think this is true in more ways than one.

The first definition of a movable feast is the standard one: it moves! (It took 8 years of college and seminary to figure that out!) Indeed, whereas the great Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord (that is, Christmas Eve & Day) are always on December 24th and 25th, the Feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord (i.e. “Easter”) has quite a range of dates. The celebration of Easter like the Old Testament Passover, is governed by the stages of the moon. The result is this year Easter was relatively late, April 21st. In 2016 you may remember, it was quite early—March 27th. Next year, in 2020, it is somewhere in between—April 12th. This can mean quite a difference in conditions of weather or of daylight, as we all know. Still, Easter is a joyful day no matter where it falls on the calendar. The message of the resurrection is for all people, for all time. And that leads me to my second definition of Easter as a movable feast.

The second definition I would offer is that we don’t have to leave Easter behind as the seasons move on. How nice to know it can move not just on the calendar but it can move with us as well. By that I mean our Christian observances of Sunday as our day of Worship is rooted in the resurrection of Jesus on the first day of the week. Those appearances to the disciples like Mary Magdalene and Peter and the rest were on that first Easter Sunday. The appearance of Jesus to Thomas (and the other disciples) was the following Sunday. You can just imagine that every Sunday after that was automatically an anniversary of Easter. I can just see them gathering each “first day of the week” after that hoping for a return visit from the Lord Jesus.

Even as the majority of the early church community continued to observe the Old Testament Sabbath on Saturdays, they would naturally gather on Sunday mornings as well, celebrating what was unique to them. They wanted to gather together to celebrate the day they first saw the risen Jesus physically present with them, communing with them, teaching them, giving them His blessing. Seven weeks later, on Pentecost, the Holy Spirit arrived on Sunday as well.

So you can see that each week, the first day of that week was automatically an anniversary of Easter. It is a celebration that has never stopped. In a way, Easter is the ultimate movable feast; it doesn’t just move once a year, it moves with us throughout the year throughout our lives. And Jesus still comes to us in His Body & Blood, with His blessing, and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

It puts me in mind of God’s people moving along with the Ark of the Covenant in their midst. The seasons would move on and the people were moving onward. But God would be with them each step of the way. He still is.

“Onward in the risen Christ.”

Pastor Paul

Call Committee Update

As presented during the April 28th congregational meeting, a list of 12 candidates was received from the Southeastern District President. Interviews were conducted during the first quarter of this year and invitations to visit LCOS were extended to two candidates; however, the invitations were declined. One candidate on the list, who initially indicated he could not consider the LCOS call, recently advised he can now consider the call. A second list of candidates, which the Southeastern District President has been asked to provide to the Call Committee, is expected during the month May.
SUMMER CHOIR THIS SUMMER!

It is almost time, time for Summer Choir! This is an easy way to have some fun singing together. It does not include wearing robes or processing or even spending the service seated up front!

Summer Choir does include people of all ages to join in the fun—kids, young adults, parents and children, grandparents and grandchildren, spouses and partners. Even your summer visitors!

Summer Choir will return for the 8:00 service on June 2, 9, 16, July 7, 14, & 21. Come on you early birds! Come rehearse, sing in church and then go for breakfast!

Here is how it works. Arrive in the Vestry/Choir Room a half hour before the beginning of the service. We will learn to sing an easy song.

When we are done rehearsing, then you can sit in your usual spot in the sanctuary. When it is time for our “anthem” (after the second lesson), make your way to the front of the church where the choir normally sits. We “do our thing” and then you return to your seat in the congregation.

Here is your chance to sing with friends or family. Remember this includes elementary, middle or high school folks, as well as the rest of us!

Please, carefully note the time. We rehearse at 7:30 am for the 8:00 am service AND note also, the dates listed above.

Hope to see you there.

BOOK CLUB NEWS

Our next meeting will be held at LCOS at 4:30 pm on Monday, May 20th followed by Dinner. Come out and join our group as we review our chosen book of Killers of the Flower Moon by David Grann. This book is described by Amazon.com as the following:

In the 1920s, the richest people per capita in the world were members of the Osage Indian nation in Oklahoma. After oil was discovered beneath their land, they rode in chauffeured automobiles, built mansions, and sent their children to study in Europe. Then, one by one, the Osage began to be killed off. The family of an Osage woman, Mollie Burkhart, became a prime target. Her relatives were shot and poisoned. And it was just the beginning, as more and more members of the tribe began to die under mysterious circumstances.

In this last remnant of the Wild West—where oilmen like J. P. Getty made their fortunes and where desperadoes like Al Spencer, the “Phantom Terror,” roamed—many of those who dared to investigate the killings were themselves murdered. As the death toll climbed to more than twenty-four, the FBI took up the case. It was one of the organization’s first major homicide investigations and the bureau badly bungled the case. In desperation, the young director, J. Edgar Hoover, turned to a former Texas Ranger named Tom White to unravel the mystery. White put together an undercover team, including one of the only American Indian agents in the bureau. The agents infiltrated the region, struggling to adopt the latest techniques of detection. Together with the Osage they began to expose one of the most chilling conspiracies in American history.

In Killers of the Flower Moon, David Grann revisits a shocking series of crimes in which dozens of people were murdered in cold blood. Based on years of research and startling new evidence, the book is a masterpiece of narrative nonfiction, as each step in the investigation reveals a series of sinister secrets and reversals. But more than that, it is a searing indictment of the callousness and prejudice toward American Indians that allowed the murderers to operate with impunity for so long. Killers of the Flower Moon is utterly compelling, but also emotionally devastating.
Thank You! Thank You!
To all the folks who donated nearly 250 bags and boxes of clothing and medical supplies to the Orphan Grain Train during March.

To all the gentlemen who showed up very early to help load the U-Haul truck.

To John Hand and Carole and Pete Peterson who drove to West Grove, PA to deliver everything.

This year’s collection is the largest ever and will go to help many needy people! To God be all the glory!

Dear Members of LCOS,

St John Church has informed me that they have received memorial gift from Lutheran Church of Our Savior. The generosity of your congregation is overwhelming.

Paul, Susan, Mark, Connie & I truly thank you for the gift as well as all the prayers, cards and thoughts at this very difficult time. Though we mourn the loss of Kent, his quick wit, humor, his place in our family circle, we rejoice that he is with the Lord.

I also thank you for the love and support you give Paul as your Pastor.

As you all have been a blessing to us, may you each receive the many blessings of our Lord.

Your sister in Christ,
Joyce Schmidt
Security

Recently, people arriving at the church for Lord’s Cupboard items, contractors and visitors have been given access to the inside of the church by members and permitted to remain in the church unaccompanied. On occasion, the people granted access have surprised people already inside. If people you don’t recognize as members request entrance into the church anytime a service is not being held, they should be directed to the outside door next to the offices, where they can use the closed-circuit television/intercom to communicate with the parish administrator.

Prayer List

We have many people on our weekly prayer list—members, family and friends of members for whom we are praying. The policy is that names be kept on the weekly list for six weeks and then moved to the monthly prayer list which is printed in the Voice. If there is a need for a loved one’s name to remain on the weekly prayer list, after six weeks, please notify the office. Also, if a name needs to come off of the prayer list prior to the six weeks, please notify the office.

JOIN THE ALTAR GUILD

We need volunteers to help set up and take down communion at both services. The time commitment would vary. It could be one week out of every four or one month out of every six (depending on the response we get). If you are interested in helping or learning more about this program, please contact Donna Egolf (302-542-1657) or Marcia Pokoyski (302-684-4551).

Well our Easter celebrations at LCOS were exciting:

Starting with the children—the Sunday School helping on Palm Sunday during services

Everyone saw our dramatic displays in the sanctuary and narthex during Lent. Now it is time to celebrate Jesus’ resurrection!

Let’s move out into the Narthex! How beautiful with banners, a breathtaking crucifix, fresh flowers and butterflies galore that send your eyes up to the words “He is Risen”

Work is done—what did someone say lunch?

Let’s complete our celebration with a delicious brunch

Happy Easter everyone! “He has risen” Yes, “He has risen” indeed.

Board of Finance: Submitted by Bill Brown
Meeting April 3, 2019

MINUTES/REPORT
Present: Ken Dietel, Joan Oeffner, Maggie Arnsberg, Mel Ettinger, Louise Dasler, Dick Steinle, and Bill Brown
Guest: John Sertich, Clean Energy Company Representative

Ken opened the meeting at 9:35 a.m. with prayer and noted that the early reports of Anne John’s surgery on April 2 were favorable. He thanked the board for successful operation during his absence. He also noted that the new Sanctuary sound system was installed and tested successfully on April 2nd.

Reports:
Financial Secretary – Dick reviewed the income and attendance results for March, indicating that there were 5 Sundays in the month. The relatively high attendance figures reflected the addition of weekly mid-week Lenten services.
Treasurer – Mel reviewed the March financial reports, pointing out that the level of General Fund income continues to be close to the budgeted expense levels. She also reported that the direct deposit bank was changed resulting in reduced service fees.
Endowment Committee – no report this month.
Sand Dollars – Louise reported a balance of $3,228.39 for March. Distributions to outside organizations included $120 to the memorial fund for Kent Schmidt (Pastor’s brother) and $100 to the LWML national “$5.00 Challenge” event.
ESL – The ESL status report reflected a net through February, 2019 of $19,352.

Unfinished Business:
Solar Panel Contract – Dick introduced John Sertich, our representative from Clean Energy Company who reported the status of our results for the past 6 years since installation of the solar panel system. John indicated that their reports show savings above amounts being paid on the contract. The 20 year contract itself was developed originally to begin with higher monthly payments with adjustments down to the lowest at the end of the contract period. The system is performing well and will continuously yield more savings over time as monthly payments decrease. Additional relevant charts and data have been added to our file. Clean Energy will continue to monitor our system and provide reports to LCOS.
Balance Sheet – Joan indicated that her work on the LCOS balance sheet pro forma is not yet completed.
Sweatshirts/Car Magnets Fund Raiser – development of this program is delayed until later in the year as reported in the March minutes.

The Board of Finance gave its approval for the overall fund raiser but gave tentative approval to the raffle segment. They forwarded that topic to the Elders to provide guidance. The Elders approved the raffle. The Board of Finance brought the subject to council. Ken Dietel made a motion for Council to approve the Mah Jongg Tournament including the raffle. The motion was seconded by Marsha Burd. 10 Council Members voted for the motion, 2 abstained from voting. Motion carried.

There is also a trench in that area that Apple Electric needs to repair. Al D'Annunzio will talk to these parties concerning these problems. He has talked to Schell Brothers in the past concerning this area.
Ken Dietel said there is a large tree by the fence around the trash cans. The tree's roots are raising the pavers and lifting up the fence. The tree should be removed. A member of Council thought the tree had been donated as a memorial gift. This issue will be looked into.
