Jane: Opening Prayer:

We come together on this Good Friday to pray the rosary. As we remember the evil which led to Jesus' unjust death, we focus on resisting the normalization of evil in our time. We strive to live out our faith to the fullest. Prayer can help expose evil for what it really is. Our faith, love and courage in the Divine Center of the Universe grabs the attention of all who witness it. This is possible for all of us, right here and right now, one moment at a time. We pray together for these intentions.

Voice 1: First Intention (Mystery): Prayer for our planet Earth.

Breath of Life, we ask for the very survival of our planet earth. Our previous vision, set in prayer was: "as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be". We have learned from science that there is no forever, creation is always in process, the Earth will not always exist. Had we acknowledged this sooner, perhaps our Earth would not be on the path to extinction.

Wrap us in your power of intention and action, that we may protect and heal our planet's precious life from the depths of the oceans to the heights of our skies. We pray...Amen

5 Hail Marys¹

Voice 2: Hail Mary, Grace Incarnate, maternal face of Holy Mystery, blessed are you among women and blessed is Jesus, the child of your womb...

¹ Hail Mary (Basic Version): Hail Mary, Grace Incarnate, maternal face of Holy Mystery, blessed are you among women and blessed is Jesus, the child of your womb. Holy Mary, truly our sister, Mother of the Cosmos, (be with us now and at the hour of our death) (altered depending on the intention of the prayer).

Voice 1: Holy Mary, truly our sister, Mother of the Cosmos, help us protect our planet Earth from further human desecration, devastation and destruction. Amen.

Glory Be

Voice 2: Glory be to the Source of all that is, everlasting Wisdom, eternal Word and Sophia (or Holy)² Spirit...as it was in the beginning, is now and will be...Amen.

Voice 1: Prayer of Jesus

Loving God, in Whom is heaven, may Your Name be honored everywhere. May your Kin-dom come, the desire of Your heart for the world be done, in us, by us and through us. Give us the bread we need for each day. Forgive us. Enable us to forgive others. Keep us from all anxiety and fear. For You reign in the power that comes from Love, which is Your glory, now and always...*Amen.*³

Voice 2: Second Intention (Mystery): Prayer for our Country and the Survival of Democracy. (Taken loosely from JesuitResource.org.)

Holy Life, we ask for wisdom to see the damage being done to our democracy by those who would mislead, deflect, disrupt, and deny the humanity of others.

We ask for the courage to learn, to witness, to speak up; to take daily actions as caring citizens, and to protect the right of all to vote and be heard.

Help us connect to our fellow citizens and commit to their well-being.

Finally, we pray for all peaceful protesters, undocumented persons and citizens, especially those who have died in an effort to protect their immigrant neighbors and friends. Amen.

² Contemporizing ancient prayers requires attention to the prayer's rhythm or cadence. The more similar to the traditional prayer the rhythm, the more easily the praying person adjusts to the new words, especially if they have no knowledge of the New Cosmology/ contemporary Catholic theology. While a feminist approach favors the use of Sophia, some may find the rhythm, or cadence, favors the use of Holy since Sophia involves 3 syllables and Holy only 2 syllables. Please choose Sophia or Holy as you prefer.

Voice 1: Third Intention: Prayer for All Immigrants, Refugees, and Asylum Seekers everywhere and, especially, for those currently living in our country or along our borders.

Divine Love, we ask your blessing on, and entrust to You, all those who have made the journey to another land, enduring fear, uncertainty and danger to reach a place of safety and hope.

We ask you to accompany them through the dangers that chase them from their home countries, the dangers they encounter on the journey, the dangers near the camps along the border and the dangers to those who are incarcerated and abused by our own government.

We ask your tenderness and protection for them; and, in caring for all immigrants, may we seek a world where no one is forced to leave their home, where all can live in freedom, dignity and peace.

Finally, we pray for those refugees, asylum seekers or immigrants who have died this year in the custody of our government...May they find a permanent home in the womb of your Holy Love. Amen.

(Taken loosely from New Ways Ministry.)

Consoling Presence, we ask you for sanctuary for those in the LGBTQIA+ community and for women who feel fear due to many national protections previously and recently put in place - and now withdrawn- as well as the threat of others to be retracted. We especially ask for sanctuary for and acceptance of trans people, and for recognition of their value and goodness.

We ask for sanctuary for all those who ever wondered if they were truly made in the image and likeness of God because of their sexual orientation or gender identity.

We ask this blessing of knowing that we all are fearfully and wonderfully made in God's image. Amen.

Jane: Concluding Blessing: "When it Feels As If the World is Ending"
From Abbey of the Arts Website

Holy Ground of Love, the world so often feels as if it is ending,
With news of wars raging, children dying, fires burning, floods rising ---
So much suffering, so much cruelty.

Our hearts feel like trees rotting away, our throats feel full of gravel,
Our guts a boulder, our eyes swollen with tears.
With the future tangled with so much loss, it all feels impossible.

Bless all those who are suffering because of injustice, loss and greed.
Ease their pain and grant them a vision of new life.

Bless us with clarity to remember that Your love is the foundation.
Bless us with guidance to be vessels of compassion and peace.
Connect us to kindred souls laboring for a more beautiful world,
So we know we are not doing this alone.
Turn the hearts of those in power toward compassion and generosity.

We don't know if what we are called to do will solve anything.
All we know is we must try.
Bless us in the trying, the grieving, the hoping.

Amen.
