Cinco De Mayo

This last week we had our Cinco De Mayo Potluck. Thank you for all those who came out and brought food. We had a great time and enjoyed some good food too. Of course a little badminton was pretty fun as well. This week there will be no IGNITE. Next week we will finish up our discussion on our questions and see if we have anymore before we finally are finished with our Godly Relationship Series.

Dustin's Corner

Summer is almost here and I think that is crazy. Here we are in the month of May and we only have traditional IGNITE one time this month. That is crazy for me because I love being with you all and seeing you all grow and bond together. So I have decided to not cancel IGNITE over the summer. Now it will not be a traditional IGNITE like we have during the school year. I am thinking more of an every other week thing. I also am thinking that we do it at different places as well as different times. So one week we could meet at a park and have a Bible study and hang out, and that could be on a Tuesday night instead of Sunday because it worked better for everyone. Now I realize that we will not be able to get everyone when we meet but I would like to get most of you. I would like to stay current with you and be there for you all. Summers are a great time to relax and be with family. But it is also a time where we might put God on the back burner because we are to busy with other things. When in reality we should be more focused on Him because we have more freedom to do so. Hopefully we can find some times to meet up and hang out and help keep each other accountable. If you are game then I am. Let's make this happen and be the summer where we grow and get fired up for Christ. So that when fall comes around we are so excited that we want to share our experiences with our friends and bring them to youth group and activities. You are the missionaries of IGNITE and you are the ones who will grow our group and lead others to Christ. Let's plan and experience an awesome summer together!

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

—Jeremiah 29:11

IGNITE Activities

Who wants to do something over Memorial Day Weekend? Let me know if you would like to get together to do something. I would love to plan something to hang out with you. Let me know your free time and your ideas. I know many people have family things so that is why I am putting it out there if there is any interest. I can pick the activity if you don't have one. Let me know.
