Ring the Year: May 19, 7 p.m.

The Bell Conte Ringers, directed by Frank Shroyer, will present a musical journey through the church year — accompanied by organ, oboe, trumpet, and percussion. This concert is co-sponsored by the Fort Worth Chapter of The American Guild of Organists. The chapter will hold a meeting and dinner at AHUMC prior to the concert. This is an excellent opportunity to bring family and friends to experience our family of faith!

May Mission Collection

Each year, AHUMC builds and gifts bookshelves and books to graduating fifth graders at North Hi Mount Elementary. Our May mission collection highlights this ministry. Sponsor a shelf for $25, drop off new or gently used books (baby board books through 6th grade chapter books) or volunteer to sort books and distribute at the school. Stop by the table in the atrium or contact Rev. Allen Lutes for more information.

Coping with Cancer: May 13, 6 p.m.

Stage: HOPE Cancer Support Group will host a discussion led by Laura Howe-Martin, Ph.D., on coping techniques for cancer patients, care givers, family and friends. Dr. Howe-Martin has extensive experience helping medical patients cope with difficulties of their illnesses, especially women affected by cancer. She is an associate professor in the Department of Psychiatry at UT Southwestern Medical Center. This is open to all members at AHUMC as well as the community. Invite a friend.

Stage: HOPE is open to all currently in treatment and caregivers, as well as those who have been diagnosed and treated for cancer in the past. For information, contact Betty Nethery, ecnethery@hotmail.com.

The Power of One: Every dollar bill placed in the offering plate is put in a special account called "Power of One" which funds special projects that are not budgeted. Rather than passing the plate without making a contribution, you are encouraged to give a dollar bill as a means of participating fully in this act of worship each time that we gather. A dollar may be a small amount, but together, the Power of One can make a difference!
