TODAY!

Please stay after worship for an all-church lunch featuring delicious barbecue and great music!

Refugee Ministry: AHUMC is partnering with Refugee Services of Texas to serve as a welcoming team for a family from the Democratic Republic of Congo. For more information, contact Rev. Allen Lutes.

June Mission Collection: As the summer begins, our partner agencies which provide assistance to those experiencing homelessness are in need of bottled water. Please donate cases of water in the atrium during June.

Project Transformation Readers: Adults and youth are needed to read to at risk children a few hours a day for four days. Can you help make a difference in a child's life? Volunteers are needed July 8-11, 9:30 a.m. to noon at University UMC. Sign up with Christine Coleman.

Heights in Mission Sunday: AHUMC is actively involved in local and international missions. Stop by the atrium on June 23 for our mission fair to find out how you can be involved in serving as the hands and feet of Christ in the world. For information, contact Rev. Allen Lutes.

Apply Now for UMC Forefathers Scholarships

Forefathers Scholarships applications are now being accepted by The Arlington Heights United Methodist Men. This scholarship is open to any member of AHUMC who will be studying at a post-high school institution, including colleges and trade schools, by Fall 2019. To apply, compose a letter to the AHUM Men that includes your involvement with AHUMC, need for this scholarship, academic record, extracurricular activities, achievements and awards, and academic and life goals. Transcripts, letters of recommendation, certificates and other materials are not necessary. Please send your letter by June 17 to ahummen@yahoo.com. (Email is preferred, but letters can be mailed to the church office, attention AHUMC Men.) Previous recipients may reapply.
