I Think You're Wrong: But I'm Listening

Discussion:

TOMORROW: March 16

More than ever, political conversations seem driven by conflict and anger. A guide to "Grace-filled Political Conversations," this book encourages the reader to choose to: respect the dignity of every person, recognize that issues are nuanced, listen in order to understand, and choose gentleness and patience.

Participants are encouraged to read the book (available in stores and online) in advance of a discussion led by Dr. Mary Spradlin (6-8 p.m. Monday, March 16). Childcare available with reservation. Please register in the church office or online (<https://tinyurl.com/wcsuj9c>).

Save April 26 for AHUMC's Seventh Annual Golf Outing!

The Seventh Annual Jimmy Jones Golf Outing will tee off after late worship on April 26 — at the completely renovated Whitestone Golf Course in Benbrook. It's time to mark your calendars and find your foursomes! Registration begins March 29.

Monies to be raised from 2020 Golf Outing sponsors, donors, and entrance fees will go 100% to refresh the Children's Rooms on the second floor. Let's come together and deliver for the future of AHUMC! Our goal is to raise $25,000.

We look forward to seeing you out on the course. Questions? Contact Shawn Wescott.

Help Spread the Word!

An easy way to invite people to attend church events is simply to "like" AHUMC posts on Facebook. Better yet, "share" a post to your page, so your friends can see it. Spread the word about our wonderful church!
