Things to know...

Thank You:

Derrick and I would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to each of you for the kindness, hospitality, and warmth you have shown us as we arrived and began settling here in Freeport. From our very first moments among you, we have felt embraced with genuine care, and because of your welcome, we already feel at home in this community.

We look forward to the days ahead as we grow in friendship and faith together, learning from one another and walking alongside you in this season of our shared journey. It is a gift to join you in the work God is doing here, and we are grateful for the opportunity to share in both the joys and challenges of life together.

May the peace of Christ dwell richly within our congregation, binding us together in love. And may God's abundant blessings overflow in each of your lives.

With gratitude and love, Derrick & Pastor Rosalind
