COMMITTED TO CHRIST

...through prayer

Let us commit ourselves to growing in faith in the time ahead through prayer. Please check all that would express your commitment to the Christ of prayer.

- At this time, I cannot commit myself to prayer.
- I will now pray once a week.
- I will pray the Lord's Prayer each day.
- I will offer one written prayer each week at the Wall for Prayer in the Sanctuary.
- I will join others in praying for all who request and are included on the prayer list (e-mailed to me.)
- I will read Amazing Grace by Kathleen Norris
- I will read Hearing with the Heart by Debra Farrington
- I will participate in a prayer circle gathering each Sunday morning at 8:45 a.m. in the East Transept of the Sanctuary.
- I will regularly pray for my family, neighbors, and the world.

COMMITTED TO CHRIST

...through worship

As Jesus did, let us commit ourselves to growing in our worship of God. Please check all that would express your commitment to the Christ of worship.

- At this time, I cannot commit myself to growing in worship.
- I will increase my worship attendance.
- I will read the Bible passages for the next Sunday in preparation for worship.
- I will seek out worship experiences when I am not present here. (traveling, vacation, etc.)
- I offer myself in service to our worship as:
 - greeter usher lay reader
 - communion server church decorations
- I will encourage others to worship by calling one person who is absent from worship on a Sunday. (contact church office for names.)
- I will join the pastor in attending a worship service beyond our schedule. (Mosaic, non-denominational, Orthodox Easter eve, etc.)
- I will be part of special Holy Week services during Lent (March 26-31, 2018)
