LIVE the Word

What if someone asked you what being "born again" means? What could you say?

"Born again" means becoming part of God's family. It's different than being born like a baby is born. It's a spiritual birth. If someone hasn't been "born again," the Bible says they are dead in their sins. Apart from God, everyone is dead spiritually. And when someone is dead in sin, the thing they need more than anything else—even physical life—is to be made alive together with Christ—to have spiritual life. That is why Jesus came. He came to offer spiritual life, to make us new creations—and that's called being "born again." People can be born again and forgiven completely of their sins by humbly repenting, turning to Jesus, and believing in Him.

MIRACLE IN BETHANY

Read each clue in the list below and decide if it's true or false. In the grid put a T by the number of each true statement and an F by the number of each false statement. Look for three in a row after you have answered all the questions.

1. Jesus got a message that said that Lazarus was dead.
2. Jesus told the disciples that Lazarus was asleep.
3. Jesus knew everything that was going to happen because He is omniscient.
4. When Jesus came to Lazarus's tomb, the stone was rolled away.
5. Jesus prayed so the people would believe that God had sent Him.
6. Jesus cried out in a loud voice saying, "Lazarus, come forth!"
7. When Lazarus came out of the tomb, he was wearing his bed clothes.
8. Because Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, many Jews believed Jesus was the Son of God.
9. Jesus came to offer spiritual life to everyone who would believe in Him.

For Parents

Jesus confirmed who He was by raising the dead—something only the one true living God could do. That is what He did after He received the message that His friend Lazarus was sick (John 11:3). Jesus loved Lazarus and his sisters, Martha and Mary, very much. And Jesus had already shown that He could heal the sick. So, the announcement that Lazarus was sick probably came with a request that Jesus heal him. Jesus assured His disciples that Lazarus would not die (John 11:4). In fact, Jesus knew Lazarus's sickness and death would result in the glory of God—that the Son of God [Jesus] would be glorified through it.

Jesus knew, too, that this miracle would strengthen the disciples' faith in Him (John 11:14–15). And so, Jesus made His way to Bethany. Once there, He called for dead Lazarus to come forth from his grave (John 11:40–43). This was for the glory of God, His Father, and many people believed in Him as a result of this great miracle.

As we consider the raising of Lazarus from the dead, it is good to consider the resurrection from death—in the spiritual sense—that all believers experience when we hear Jesus calling us to follow Him (Matthew 4:19). In Ephesians, Paul says that Jesus made us alive who were once dead in our trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1). God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love for us, can make us alive together with Christ even though we are dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:4–5). God does this through the free gift of grace given to us as a result of faith in the Savior, Jesus Christ (Ephesians 2:8).

This journey from spiritual death to eternal life is available to all who will humbly accept the truth of the gospel and will turn in repentance toward God and in faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 20:21).

OutWord↻ For Family Discussion

What if a friend asks you what happened to all the people who died before Jesus came? Are they in heaven or hell? What would you say?

Everyone who is saved by faith in Jesus Christ will go to heaven. Those who lived before Jesus lived were saved by their faith in Jesus because they believed God's promise that a Savior would come. They were looking forward to Jesus. The Law that God put in place with its sacrifices and festivals and commandments pointed those people to Jesus who was yet to come. Those who lived after Jesus were also saved by their faith in the living Jesus Christ. They were looking backward to Jesus. The truth is, anyone who puts their faith in Jesus Christ, as the Scriptures say, will have eternal life and spend eternity in heaven with Him.
