WE GATHER TO WORSHIP GOD

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Beloved of God, we gather to worship the Lord who hears prayers spoken and sung.

Musicians & Singers:

These songs were “tones loud, long, and deep,” breathing prayer and complaint to God.

Choir Side:* Not songs of happiness.

Pulpit Side:* Voices shaped by sorrow and trust.

ALL: We come to worship the God who hears,
the God who remembers, the God who delivers.

One:

Let us worship the Lord.

ALL: Let us worship God.

HYMN 339 “Lift Every Voice and Sing” LIFT EVERY VOICE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

The songs of faith we sing today were born from deep sorrow and honest cries to God. They remind us that faith does not hide from suffering or turn away from truth.

Yet we confess that we have not always listened with humility. We have heard the music without attending to the pain beneath it. We have trusted our comfort more than God’s call, and we have grown weary in the work of love and justice.

Trusting in the mercy of the God who hears every prayer—spoken and sung—we come now to confess our sin and to seek God’s grace together.

*GLORIA PATRI (Hymn #581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH
from the Westminster
Confession of Faith (1647)

Adapted

We believe in God, the great Creator of all things, who upholds and governs all that God has made with wisdom, holiness, and steadfast love. We believe that God hears the cries of God's people and remains present in times of suffering and trial. God is faithful to God's promises, and God's mercy does not fail. We believe in Jesus Christ, who is our righteousness and our hope, and through whom we receive forgiveness and new life. We believe in the Holy Spirit, who strengthens faith, forms the Church, and enables us to live in obedience, to love our neighbors, and to seek justice with humility. Trusting in God's grace alone, we offer our lives in worship and service, to the glory of God.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Prayer Vigil - Friday March 6 - Sunrise to Sunset

Following Jesus in a Fractured World.

At First Presbyterian Grapevine we have the common belief of following Jesus. What did Jesus do to minister to people in the troubled world of his time? First, he prayed. So, let's follow his model, seeking discernment for how we might actively serve in our community. To join in the World Day of Prayer, a vigil is scheduled for March 6. A signup sheet for time slots is available in the Narthex and will also be available online.
