JUNE 12-16

Fisherville Family,

I have the wonderful privilege to be involved in several prayer times each week.

Do you know the number one thing I hear thanksgiving and continual requests for? The answer is our spiritual unity. God is so good to us, in that He has blessed our staff, our deacons, and our church as a whole with unity and oneness.

I am reminded of Psalm 133;

“Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, running down on the edge of his garments. It is like the dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion; for there the Lord commanded the blessing—Life forevermore.”

May we prayerfully and carefully cherish and guard the unity at Fisherville Baptist.

God Bless,

Bro. Jack

" Our Spiritual Unity"

I am blessed to be part of a musical family. Not that I am particularly musical, but the Lord blessed Tonda and me with three children, each of whom are musically inclined. To hear my children share their musical gift always brings joy to this dad's heart, and I thank God for His gift of music.

I can't help but think that the Lord blessed us with music because it brings joy to Him when He hears music from His children. He even included a hymn book in the Bible!

The book of Psalms is the song book of the Old Testament. We will be studying The Psalms in our Sunday Morning Bible Study (Sunday School) in June, July and August. Join us as God reveals Himself to us through the poetry and beauty of His Book of Praise, The Psalms. Sunday School classes for all ages and stages of life, each Sunday morning at 9:45.

Fisherville Family,

Brian and I are so blessed to be a part of such a loving and caring church family. Thank you especially for your prayers. I know they are the reason why I am doing so well. Thank you, also, for the calls, cards, visits, and food.

May God bless each of you as you have blessed me. Thank you.

In His Love,
Betty Barry

Thank you so much for everything you have done for the students and teachers. My students have really enjoyed reading with y'all and the bag of goodies was very generous. We (teachers) loved our breakfast and it was greatly appreciated! Ashley Putman

Thank you all for your help with tutoring the students. I see growth. I'm excited about next year because I see a difference in a month and a half. I can only imagine the growth over several months.

Thanks for the awesome, fulfilling breakfast. Your kindness and dedication to our students our staff is greatly appreciated. C.B. Ross

I was talking to a Minister of Music friend of mine this week who was sharing with me about a person in his church, whom no matter what music he planned for a particular Sunday; this person always had something negative to say to him. It reminded me of a story that I was told once; two ladies were sitting by one another in a worship service. One of the ladies sat through the service, thinking to herself that she didn't like the music that Sunday, the preacher preached way too long, and nothing he said applied to her life at all. She thought about how it was so hot in the sanctuary and by the end of the service she felt as if she had just wasted her time showing up that day. As the service ended, she turned to her friend to share all of her criticisms. Before she could say a word to her friend she noticed there were tears streaming down her face and she said; "this service was exactly what I needed today." It immediately caused the critical lady to think about her attitude during the service. John 4:23-24 says: "But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." Let this be a reminder to all of us as we come to worship together each week. Let us enter His gates with thanksgiving in our hearts and his courts with praise; give thanks to Him and praise His name. I feel so blessed to serve in a church that has a wonderful unity among the congregation and so thankful for the loving, encouraging, people that fill our pews each week. I'm so thankful for all the folks that volunteer their time and amazing gifts each week to lead in worship, and for the truth from God's word shared by such gifted pastors. We are so blessed!
