

Women's Bible Study Questions

1. What jumps out at you in this passage?

2. What did the passage meant to its first readers?

3. What does it mean for the church today?

4. What central point is the author making?

5. How does it connect to other Scriptures?

6. How does it reveal Jesus- his life, death, resurrection, ascension, and return?

7. How does it move you in your life today- where is the struggle? where is your faith? where is your hope?