"13th": Director Ava DuVernay, who is currently helming the upcoming "A Wrinkle in Time film," first made waves with this startling documentary on the American prison systems. Known for her vocal approach on the subjects of race and equality, DuVernay comes at her viewers full-force, comparing modern incarceration to early slavery. Viewers are challenged to think critically on questions of truth and justice, while receiving an inside look at the legislation which governs American prisons. The film is not for the faint of heart, but is nonetheless a story which needs telling. (Sanctuary)

FILM: "The Miracle Season" opens in theaters (<http://www.imdb.com/title/tt5427194>)

"The Miracle Season" is about a high school girls' volleyball team that had to overcome a tragic loss of one of their players. The cast of the film is lead by Helen Hunt, William Hurt, Danika Yarosh, Erin Moriarty, as well as Tiera Skovbye and Nesta Cooper. "The Miracle Season" is based on the inspiring true story of West High School girls' volleyball team. In 2011, their star player Caroline Found tragically died in a moped accident, but the team (and the entire town) came together and overcame the odds. The story was already profiled on HBO's "Real Sports" series, but this is the feature film version.

Documentary Screening: "Jesus Camp" (https://youtu.be/sC_vzUWlfzs)

"Jesus Camp": If you are a Christian, especially if you ever went to a church camp, you will find this documentary by turns deeply frustrating, deeply yet vaguely familiar. "The Jesus Camp" of this documentary is not — repeat, not — representative of many of the great Christian camps out there, but neither is it unique. Christians should see this documentary, if for no other reason than to know what the 'other side' thinks of us." (Sanctuary)
