Bulletin Cover

- The images on today's bulletin cover capture one small part of a much larger story from St. Andrew's Vacation Bible School, "Faith Under Construction." From June 14-18, 50-plus children daily explored Bible stories about Noah, King Solomon, Joseph the Carpenter, the Wise and Foolish Builders, and the calling to build Christ's church through love, trust, and service. They sang, danced, learned, created, experimented, got muddy, assembled service projects, stocked Food Market shelves, packed "Birthdays in a Bag," and partnered with local organizations including Houses into Homes.
- One of the week's art projects invited campers to create colorful construction-paper "stained glass" windows. Today those creations fill portions of our Sanctuary, allowing sunlight to shine through the work of young hands and reminding us that faith is built not only with bricks and mortar, but through imagination, kindness, friendship, and service.
- We give thanks for the children, volunteers, families, and staff who helped make the week possible, and for the ways God continues building the church through them.

Flowers on the Chancel

- Today's flowers were provided by Dan and Deb Fick in celebration of summer.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

9:30 a.m. | June 28, 2026

St. Andrew Presbyterian Church | Iowa City, Iowa

Welcome + Announcements

✠ Call to Gather | adapted from a liturgy by Jeff Charis-Carlson

When God arrives, it's not always in burning bushes or mountaintop revelations.
It's not always through miracles or moments that make the headlines.

God can also arrive as a conversation.

A ride across town.

A listening ear.

A cup of cold water offered to someone who needs it.

This morning, we gather to worship the God who meets us in ordinary places.

We worship the God who transforms ordinary acts into signs of extraordinary grace.

Come. Bring your joys and your burdens.

Come. Bring your questions and your hopes.

Come. Bring your whole self.

Christ is already here among us,

calling us to lay down our swords,

calling us to to lay down our burdens,

and calling us to love our neighbors one small act at a time.

✠ Gathering Hymn | "Down by the Riverside," pg. 8

✠ Prayer of Confession & Promise of Ever-Present Grace | from a liturgy by Jeff Charis-Carlson

God of welcome and compassion,

we confess that we often look for you in the spectacular

while overlooking the people right in front of us.

We want our faith to be bold and inspiring,

yet we neglect the small opportunities to show kindness.

We dream of changing the world,

but sometimes fail to notice a lonely neighbor,

a discouraged friend, or a stranger who simply needs to be seen.

Forgive us when convenience becomes more important than compassion.
 Forgive us when busyness crowds out generosity.
Forgive us when we pass by the chance to offer a word of encouragement,
a helping hand, or even a cup of cold water.
 Open our eyes to your presence in ordinary moments.
Open our hearts to the people you place in our path.
 Teach us again that every act of love matters,
because every person matters to you.

Time for Silent Confession

Friends, hear the good news:
 God's grace is not reserved for the perfect, the powerful, or the spiritually impressive.
 The God who meets us in ordinary moments also meets us with extraordinary mercy.
In Jesus, the Christ, we are forgiven.
 And that same Jesus sends us back into the world to practice small acts of great love.
Thanks be to God.

✕ Sharing of Christ's Peace & Compassion

And now, as a visible sign of what it means to live together in the care and context of Christ's community, let us extend Christ's peace and compassion to those around us!
The peace of Christ be with you all! And also with you!

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Down by the Riverside

African American Spiritual

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of eight staves of music. The first staff begins with a double bar line and repeat sign. The lyrics are arranged in two columns: the first column contains the first two lines of the first verse, and the second column contains the first two lines of the second verse. The music is primarily in the soprano range. Chords are indicated by letters above the staff: F, C7, and Bb. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat sign.

Celebrating a Transition

Today is Thomas Hartley's final Sunday serving as director of Children's and Family Ministry at St. Andrew.

In a recent Messenger article, Thomas wrote about transitions. Sometimes they're planned. Sometimes they're unexpected. Even the good ones can leave us feeling uncertain. His advice was simple: choose celebration over stress.

That feels like good advice today.

Many of us have had the privilege of watching Thomas "grow up" at St. Andrew. We celebrated when he and Lauren were married, have watched him grow as a leader and educator, and now look forward to welcoming their daughter later this summer.

For years, Thomas has balanced this ministry role with his work as a kindergarten teacher. In many ways, that is exactly what made him such a wonderful colleague and children's ministry leader.

He brought the heart of a teacher to everything he did ... helping children build confidence, ask questions, make friends, discover their gifts, and learn that they are deeply loved by God.

At the same time, he helped St. Andrew's children grow up. Through Sunday mornings, VBS, service projects, songs, stories, and plenty of laughter, he created spaces where young people could learn more about who they are becoming.

As Thomas helped shape the faith of our children, this congregation also had the joy of watching him become the person he is today.

We are grateful that Wendy Lindberg has stepped into interim leadership and will help guide Children's and Family Ministry through this next season. Today, however, is about gratitude.

Thomas, thank you for sharing this chapter of your life with us. We celebrate this transition with you and wish you, Lauren, and your growing family every blessing in the years ahead.

Questions about Worship?

- Welcome! Whether you are joining us in person or online, we are delighted to worship together.
- St. Andrew is an open, affirming, and inclusive congregation. That means we welcome saints and sinners, skeptics and believers, families of all shapes and sizes, and people from every point along life's journey. So, whoever you are this morning, whatever you believe—whether you believe anything at all: You are welcome here!
- If you are here for the first time, we encourage you to stop by our Welcome Table or Information Kiosk near the main entrance in the Atrium. There you will find some good people who would love to answer any questions you might have about our faith community.
- If you can't stop at the Info Kiosk today, you can learn more about St. Andrew by emailing office@saintandrew-ic.org or filling out this short form: <https://tinyurl.com/sapc-guest>.
- Our worship services begin in-person and online at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings, followed by Sunday School and Adult Christian Education offerings from September to April and a variety of After Worship activities from May to August.
- Nursery care (up to age 2) is provided in the Lower Level throughout the morning. Programming for children (through Kindergarten age) begins in the Lower Level after the Time for Young Disciples.
- Unless otherwise designated, gifts given to the weekly offering support the church budget, including staff salaries, utilities, mission outreach, and all aspects of ministry.
- To log into the St. Andrew Connect system, either download the St. Andrew App through the App Store/Google Play or visit <https://saintandrew.ccbchurch.com>.
- There are wheelchairs available for use as needed in the lower level entrance foyer and by the coat racks near the upper level entrance.
- There is an AED near the Coffee Kitchen should a medical emergency arise.
- Permission to livestream the music in this service is from CCLI (#617801) and One License (A-711114).
