Bulletin Cover

- Today's cover features Power of the Lord's Prayer (2007) by digital artist Roman Sabatini. Using computer programming as part of his creative process, Sabatini takes one of Christianity's oldest and most familiar prayers and gives us a new way to see it.
- For six weeks, we've slowed down over words many of us can say without thinking: "Our Father." "Thy will." "Our daily bread." "Forgive us." "Lead us." And now: "For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever."
- That seems like a good place to end, especially on World Communion Sunday. We gather at a table that doesn't belong to us, alongside Christians around the world who may say these words differently but still gather around the same promise.

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude | Come Let Us Worship God, arr. by Katie Houts

✠ Call to Gather | adapted from a World Community Sunday liturgy by Teri McDowell Ott

They will come from east and west,
they will come from north and south,
and, together, will experience the reality of God.
Thanks be to God for welcoming us to the table.

✠ Call to Confession & Promise of Ever Present Grace | adapted from a liturgy by Teri McDowell Ott

We pray, "For thine is the kingdom."
And still, we build our own little kingdoms.
We pray, "Thine is the power."
And still, we hold tightly to whatever power we have.
We pray, "Thine is the glory."
And still, we want some of the credit.

God of Grace,
Forgive us when we forget what belongs to you,
and what you have placed in our care.
Loosen our grip. ... Open our hands.
Turn us again toward you.

Our Father, Which Art in Heaven 464

1 Our Fa - ther, which art in heav - en:
 2 On earth as it is in heav - en:
 3 And for - give us all our debts:
 4 And lead us not in - to temp - ta - tion:
 5 For thine is the king - dom, the power, and the glo - ry:

hal - low - ed - a be thy name.

Thy king - dom come; thy will be done:
 Give us this day our dai - ly bread:
 As we for - give our debt - ors:
 But de - liv - er us from e - vil:
 For - ev - er and ev - er, a - men:

hal - low - ed - a be thy name.

This lively call-and-response setting of the Lord's Prayer, based on the King James Version, uses the opening blessing as the congregation's refrain. This repetition is more than a convenience; it is a reminder of our abiding hope that all people will come to honor God's name.

Ready to Take a Sunday?

We could give you all the serious reasons to be an Usher or Greeter: hospitality, welcome, connection, helping people find their place. All true. But there are also a few more practical reasons.

- No. 5: Discover just how many people at St. Andrew you recognize but cannot yet name.
- No. 4: Give yourself one very good reason to get to church before 9:29 a.m.
- No. 3: Experience the small — but genuine! — triumph of finding three seats together when the Sanctuary looks full.
- No. 2: Develop the ability to spot six inches of usable pew from halfway across the Sanctuary.
- No. 1: Learn that “full” and “Presbyterian full” are not necessarily the same thing.

And beneath all of that is the real reason: Helping everyone who comes through our doors know there is a place for them here.
