

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Ridgecrest Family,

We were tremendously blessed last Sunday at The Ridge in many ways. First, we witnessed the baptism of an entire family--- Praise the Lord! Second, we praised God in song, in giving, and in preaching. Finally, we heard the voice of God speaking to us from Holy Scripture. All of this took place in a warm sanctuary, in a country where open worship of Jesus Christ is lawful and protected. Thank you Heavenly Father for your kind favor, unfailing love, and gracious gifts! May His kindness lead us to repentance and dedication. This week please prepare for giving to the Offering for International Missions (Lottie Moon Offering). Also, we will worship through expounding the story of Ruth. I am of course asking you to read this short story and pray in advance for Sunday. Ruth is the third "outsider" in a four part series from the family lineage of our Messiah. Please invite someone who is unchurched to hear this message of Christmas. I love you.
