In April we are going to be starting a brand new sermon series on Sunday mornings called

"Passion in Practice"

looking at how we passionately pursue Christ in a variety of areas in our lives including marriage, parenting, finances, health, athletics, career, hobbies/interests, and rest. We are going to have some panel discussions throughout the series specifically focused on marriage, parenting, career, and athletics. We would love for you to submit questions or challenges in these areas and our panels will try to address them.
