*I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.*

*You soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo, dice el Señor;
el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre.*

*Ja jestem chlebem żywym, który zstąpił z nieba.
Jeśli kto spożywa ten chleb, będzie żył na wieki.*

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Body and Blood of Our Lord (Corpus Christi).
This week and next week, the history of this feast will be presented.

The origin of Corpus Christi began with a Eucharistic miracle, which is a moment of divine intervention aimed at confirming the faith in the Real Presence of the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Eucharist. While there are many websites and resources documenting Eucharistic miracles throughout history, one of the best is the compilation by Blessed Carlos Acutis: miracolieucaristici.org. Here is the description of the event in 1263:

In 1263 a German priest, Peter of Prague, stopped at Bolsena [Italy] while on a pilgrimage to Rome. He... [was] a pious priest, but one who found it difficult to believe that Christ was actually present in the consecrated Host. While celebrating Holy Mass above the tomb of St. Christina (located in the church named for this martyr), he had barely spoken the words of Consecration when blood started to seep from the consecrated Host and trickle over his hands onto the altar and the corporal. The priest was immediately confused. At first, he attempted to hide the blood, but then he interrupted the Mass and asked to be taken to the neighboring city of Orvieto, where Pope Urban IV resided. The Pope listened to the priest's account and absolved him. He then sent emissaries for an immediate investigation. When all the facts were ascertained, he ordered the Bishop of the diocese to bring the Host and the linen cloth bearing the stains of blood to Orvieto. With archbishops, cardinals and other Church dignitaries in attendance, the Pope met the procession and, amid great pomp, had the relics placed in the cathedral. The linen corporal bearing the spots of blood is still reverently enshrined and exhibited in the Cathedral of Orvieto. It is said that Pope Urban IV was prompted by this miracle to commission St. Thomas Aquinas to compose the Proper for a Mass and an Office honoring the Holy Eucharist as the Body of Christ. One year after the miracle, in August of 1264, Pope Urban IV introduced the saint's composition, and by means of a papal bull instituted the feast of Corpus Christi.

This was when St. Thomas Aquinas wrote the hymn containing the verses of Tantum Ergo, which we still sing today during Eucharistic exposition! The papal bull, Transiturus, ordered Corpus Christi be celebrated annually on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday throughout the Latin Church. Why Thursday? Perhaps as a reminder that Jesus celebrated the Last Supper on the Thursday before His passion. In modern times, this feast is commonly transferred to the following Sunday to accommodate the faithful.

Estimados Hermanos/as en Cristo,

Hoy celebramos el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Nuestro Señor (Corpus Christi).
Esta semana y la próxima se presentará la historia de esta fiesta.

El origen del Corpus Christi comenzó con un milagro eucarístico, que es un momento de intervención divina destinado a confirmar la fe en la Presencia Real del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús en la Eucaristía. Aunque hay muchos sitios web y recursos que documentan los milagros eucarísticos a lo largo de la historia, uno de los mejores es la recopilación del Beato Carlos Acutis: miracolieucaaristici.org. He aquí la descripción del acontecimiento en 1263:

En 1263 un sacerdote alemán, Pedro de Praga, se detuvo en Bolsena [Italia] mientras peregrinaba a Roma. Era... [Era un sacerdote piadoso, pero al que le costaba creer que Cristo estuviera realmente presente en la Hostia consagrada. Mientras celebraba la Santa Misa sobre la tumba de Santa Cristina (situada en la iglesia que lleva el nombre de esta mártir), apenas había pronunciado las palabras de la Consagración cuando empezó a brotar sangre de la Hostia consagrada y a gotear por sus manos sobre el altar y el corporal. El sacerdote se sintió confuso de inmediato. Al principio, intentó ocultar la sangre, pero luego interrumpió la misa y pidió que lo llevaran a la ciudad vecina de Orvieto, donde residía el Papa Urbano IV. El Papa escuchó el relato del sacerdote y lo absolvió. A continuación, envió emisarios para una investigación inmediata. Una vez comprobados todos los hechos, ordenó al obispo de la diócesis que llevara a Orvieto la Hostia y el lienzo con las manchas de sangre. Con la asistencia de arzobispos, cardenales y otros dignatarios de la Iglesia, el Papa se reunió con la procesión y, en medio de gran pompa, hizo colocar las reliquias en la catedral. El corporal de lino con las manchas de sangre sigue siendo venerado y expuesto en la catedral de Orvieto. Se dice que el Papa Urbano IV, impulsado por este milagro, encargó a Santo Tomás de Aquino que compusiera el Propio para una Misa y un Oficio en honor de la Sagrada Eucaristía como Cuerpo de Cristo. Un año después del milagro, en agosto de 1264, el Papa Urbano IV introdujo la composición del santo, y mediante una bula papal instituyó la fiesta del Corpus Christi.

Fue entonces cuando Santo Tomás de Aquino escribió el himno que contiene los versos del Tantum Ergo, que aún hoy cantamos durante la exposición eucarística. La bula papal Transitus ordenaba que el Corpus Christi se celebrara anualmente el jueves siguiente al Domingo de la Trinidad en toda la Iglesia latina. ¿Por qué el jueves? Quizá para recordar que Jesús celebró la Última Cena el jueves anterior a su pasión. En los tiempos modernos, esta fiesta suele trasladarse al domingo siguiente para dar cabida a los fieles.

Drodzy Bracia i Siostry w Chrystusie,

Dziś obchodzimy święto Ciała i Krwi Pańskiej (Boże Ciało). W tym i przyszłym tygodniu zostanie przedstawiona historia tego święta.

Pochodzenie Bożego Ciała rozpoczęło się od cudu eucharystycznego, który jest momentem boskiej interwencji mającej na celu potwierdzenie wiary w rzeczywistą obecność Ciała i Krwi Jezusa w Eucharystii. Choć istnieje wiele stron internetowych i zasobów dokumentujących cuda eucharystyczne na przestrzeni dziejów, jednym z najlepszych jest kompilacja autorstwa błogosławionego Carlosa Acutisa: miracolieucaristici.org. Oto opis wydarzenia z 1263 roku:

W 1263 roku niemiecki ksiądz, Piotr z Pragi, zatrzymał się w Bolsenie [Włochy] podczas pielgrzymki do Rzymu. On ... [był] pobożnym księdzem, ale trudno mu było uwierzyć, że Chrystus jest rzeczywiście obecny w konsekrowanej Hostii. Podczas odprawiania mszy świętej nad grobem św. Krystyny (znajdującym się w kościele nazwanym na cześć tej męczennicy), ledwo wypowiedział słowa konsekracji, gdy krew zaczęła wyciekać z konsekrowanej Hostii i ściekać po jego rękach na ołtarz i korporał. Kapłan był natychmiast dezorientowany. Początkowo próbował ukryć krew, ale potem przerwał mszę i poprosił o zabranie go do sąsiedniego miasta Orvieto, gdzie przebywał papież Urban IV. Papież wysłuchał relacji księdza i rozgrzeszył go. Następnie wysłał emisariuszy w celu przeprowadzenia natychmiastowego śledztwa. Kiedy wszystkie fakty zostały ustalone, nakazał biskupowi diecezji przywieźć hostię i lniane płótno z plamami krwi do Orvieto. W obecności arcybiskupów, kardynałów i innych dostojników kościelnych papież spotkał się z procesją i z wielką pompą kazał umieścić relikwie w katedrze. Lniany korporał noszący plamy krwi jest nadal z szacunkiem przechowywany i wystawiany w katedrze w Orvieto. Mówi się, że cud ten skłonił papieża Urbana IV do zlecenia św. Tomaszowi z Akwinu skomponowania mszału i oficjum ku czci Świętej Eucharystii jako Ciała Chrystusa. Rok po cudzie, w sierpniu 1264 r., papież Urban IV wprowadził kompozycję świętego i bullą papieską ustanowił święto Bożego Ciała.

To właśnie wtedy św. Tomasz z Akwinu napisał hymn zawierający wersety Tantum Ergo, który do dziś śpiewamy podczas wystawienia eucharystycznego! Bulla papieska Transitorius nakazywała obchodzić Boże Ciało co roku w czwartek po niedzieli Trójcy Świętej w całym Kościele łacińskim. Dlaczego w czwartek? Być może dla przypomnienia, że Jezus obchodził Ostatnią Wieczerzę w czwartek przed swoją męką. W dzisiejszych czasach święto to jest często przenoszone na następną niedzielę, aby dostosować się do potrzeb wiernych

Liturgy of the Word

God's love for us comes across vividly in today's readings. God promises Moses to be merciful, gracious, and rich in kindness. Paul tells the Corinthians that the God of love and peace will be with them as they treat each other with love and live in peace. John points out that Christ's sacrifice on the cross is a vivid sign of God's great love for us. Let us listen to God's word with grateful hearts

IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

This is a reminder, that the St. Vincent de Paul Society will hold their annual Re-Registration of ALL families on June 8th and 22nd, 2026.

The Registration is held for all families, that is for those CURRENT families as well as NEW families. The registration assists us in providing better service for all and meeting the needs of the families. Please note that any and all information collected is strictly confidential and is NOT shared with anyone.

The June 8th registration will be held in the Church basement between the hours of 6 PM and 7:30 PM. If you cannot attend the June 8th registration, we will also be registering families on June 22nd during our regular Monday distribution located in the school.

ALL clients must bring a copy of their Driver's License or other official form of I.D., as well as proof of your current address. In addition, if you have children who are 17 years of age or younger, it is necessary that you also provide verification of their names and ages. This will assist us in planning treats for them during the holidays.

Please note: Only one family per household can register.

Parish Mission Statement

We Believe that God is Love, and when we live in love we live in God and God lives in us! Therefore we, the Parish Family of Saint Turibius, dedicate ourselves to living out Christ's Great Commandment: we will love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength, and we will show our love for God by the way we love and care for one another. To this end, we will respond to our baptismal call, strengthened by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit. As a Family of Faith that has an Attitude of Gratitude for the gifts God has given to us, we will share our time, our talent and our treasure with each other. We welcome into our parish family all people, because we believe that together we are the Body of Christ and together we can bring the love, peace, forgiveness, healing, and joy of Christ into our community in ways we never could have if we were to remain apart. May all who meet us, who worship with us, who work and play with us, know we are Christians by our love!
