FROM THE PASTORS DESK DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO OD PROBOSZCZA BIURKA

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

How to Explain the 7 Sacraments Without Boring Your Children - (From Catholic-Link)

Cómo explicar los 7 sacramentos sin aburrir a sus hijos - (de Catholic-Link)

Jak wyjaśnić 7 sakramentów, nie nudząc dzieci - (od Catholic-Link)

Do you have to explain the sacraments to your son or daughter? Is it sometimes a bit complicated for you? Don't worry. Through this article, we'll help you use the right words for them to understand correctly. To start, we must know what the Sacraments are.

The Sacraments are actions of God with which He shows us the love He has for his sons and daughters. All of them have been created (instituted) by Him, and that's why it's He who performs them through different means.

And why did He give them to us? To give us grace. That is to say, to give us, along with His love, the necessary strength to fight against and through the difficulties of life. Of course, that is, if we have a positive disposition and attitude towards wanting to please God.

¿Tienes que explicarle los sacramentos a tu hijo o a tu hija? ¿A veces te resulta un poco complicado? No te preocupes. A través del libro: «Guía de los Sacramentos para niños» de Arturo Cañamares publicado por Ediciones Palabra, y de este artículo, te vamos a ayudar a usar las palabras adecuadas para que ellos lo entiendan bien.

Para empezar, tenemos que saber qué son los sacramentos. Los sacramentos son acciones de Dios con las que nos muestra el amor que tiene por sus hijos. Todos ellos han sido creados (instituidos) por Él, y por eso, es Él mismo quien los realiza a través de distintos medios.

¿Y para qué nos los dio? Para darnos la gracia. Es decir, para darnos, junto con su amor, la fuerza necesaria para luchar contra las dificultades de la vida. Claro que siempre y cuando nosotros tengamos una disposición y una actitud positiva de querer agradarlo a Él.

Czy musisz wyjaśniać swoje sakramenty swojemu synowi lub córce? Czy czasami jest to dla Ciebie trochę skomplikowane? Nie martw się. W tym artykule pomożemy Ci użyć właściwych słów, aby mogli poprawnie zrozumieć. Na początek musimy wiedzieć, czym są sakramenty.

Sakramenty są działaniami Boga, przez które okazuje nam miłość, jaką darzy swoich synów i córki. Wszystkie z nich zostały przez Niego stworzone (ustanowione) i dlatego to On wykonuje je na różne sposoby.

A dlaczego nam je dał? Aby dać nam łaskę. To znaczy, aby dać nam, wraz ze swoją miłością, niezbędną siłę do walki z trudnościami życia i pokonywania ich. Oczywiście, jeśli mamy pozytywne usposobienie i nastawienie do chęci podobania się Bogu.

Rev. William Lego, OSA

What are the seven Sacraments? ¿Cuáles son los siete sacramentos? Jakie jest siedem sakramentów?

2. Confirmation Confirmación Potwierdzenie

It's as simple as God (His Holy Spirit) increasing our faith so we have the certainty that He's with us until we arrive in Heaven, for which He also gives us hope. Finally, He strengthens our charity for us to love Him and others more deeply. In this case, it has to be a bishop who imposes his hands over the confirmandi and anoints him or her with oil (the Holy Chrism), while he says "I sign thee with the Sign of the Cross, and I confirm thee with the Chrism of salvation, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit".

Es tan sencillo como que Dios (su Espíritu Santo), por medio de su gracia, nos aumenta la fe para que tengamos la seguridad de que Él está con nosotros hasta que lleguemos al Cielo, para lo que también nos da esperanza. Finalmente, nos aumenta la caridad para que le amemos más a Él y a los que nos rodean. En este caso, tiene que ser un obispo el que imponga sus manos sobre el confirmande y nos unja con aceite (el Santo Crisma), mientras dice: «Recibe por esta señal el don del Espíritu Santo».

Jest to tak proste, jak Bóg (Jego Duch Święty) zwiększa naszą wiarę, dzięki czemu mamy pewność, że jest z nami, aż do przybycia do Nieba, na co również daje nam nadzieję. W końcu umacnia naszą miłość do nas, byśmy bardziej kochali Go i innych. W tym przypadku musi to być biskup, który nakłada ręce na bierzmowanie i namaszcza go olejem (Krzyżem Świętym), mówiąc: „Podpisuję Cię Znakiem Krzyża i utwierdzam Cię w Krzyżmo zbawienia w imię Ojca i Syna i Ducha Świętego”.

What is World Mission Sunday?

Each year, on the second-to-last Sunday of October, Catholics throughout the world celebrate World Mission Sunday—a day of prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission in more than 1,300 mission territories.

In 2026, this celebration takes on special significance as the Church marks the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926 as a universal expression of the Church's missionary identity.

World Mission Sunday is unique. It is the one day each year when the entire Catholic Church—every parish, in every country—comes together to pray for and support the missions. On this day, the faithful participate directly in the Church's evangelizing work, responding to Christ's command to "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19).

The collection taken up on World Mission Sunday is entrusted to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of the four Pontifical Mission Societies. These offerings are distributed, in the name of the Holy Father, to sustain the Church in places where it barely exists yet, where it is young, growing, and often facing poverty, isolation, or persecution.

More than a collection, World Mission Sunday is a visible sign of the unity of the Church. It is the best way by which we can share in the universal mission of the Church to spread the faith through prayer and sacrifice. We may not be able to GO to the missions, but we can SEND to the missions both our prayers as well as the material means they need so much.

What is the Society for the Propagation of the Faith?

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was founded in 1822 by Blessed Pauline Jaricot, a young laywoman in Lyon, France, who sought to support missionaries through a simple but powerful idea: invite ordinary people to pray daily for the missions and to give small, regular offerings.

Her vision spread rapidly, forming a global network of prayer and charity that continues to sustain the Church's missionary work to this day.

In 1922, Pope Pius XI recognized the importance of this work by establishing the Pontifical Mission Societies, placing the Society for the Propagation of the Faith under the direct care of the Pope and entrusting it with a central role in supporting the missions.

The Society remains at the heart of World Mission Sunday, ensuring that the offerings of the faithful are distributed equitably to mission dioceses throughout the world.

It is worth remembering that the Church in the United States was once a beneficiary of this generosity. Throughout the 19th century and into the early 20th century, American dioceses received substantial support through the Society—support that helped build parishes, schools, hospitals, and seminaries.

Today, that same spirit of missionary solidarity continues, as Catholics in the United States now support the Church in mission territories across the globe.

Why Does World Mission Sunday Matter?

World Mission Sunday is a profound expression of the Church's unity and her missionary calling. In many parts of the world, the Church is vibrant and growing, yet lacks the resources needed to sustain that growth. Communities may have limited access to the sacraments, rely heavily on catechists for formation, or face the challenges of poverty, conflict, or persecution.

Through the prayers and offerings of the faithful, World Mission Sunday helps ensure that these communities are not forgotten. It supports the formation of future priests and religious, the education of children in the faith, the care of the sick, and the life of parishes where the Gospel is still being proclaimed for the first time.

At its heart, World Mission Sunday is not simply about meeting material needs. It is about sharing the gift of faith. It is a participation in the Church's mission to make God's love known in Jesus Christ.

In this centenary year, we are reminded that mission is not the task of a few, but the responsibility of all the baptized. Each prayer offered, each sacrifice made, and each gift given becomes an act of missionary communion—helping to bring the light of Christ to every corner of the world.

Liturgy of the Word

God's preeminence is highlighted in today's readings. Isaiah proclaims that God was the force behind the pagan king Cyrus when he defeated the Babylonians and allowed the Chosen People to return to the promised land, even though he certainly didn't realize it. Paul tells the Thessalonians that God chose them in Christ. Finally, Jesus tells the Pharisees that they should comply with Caesar's tax, but it is more important to repay God for all God's gifts. So ought we, as we sing in the psalm, give the Lord glory and honor.

Blessed the Peacemakers!

Some people are peacemakers in themselves. By conquering and subjecting to reason all the motions of their souls, and taming their carnal desires, they become,  in themselves, a kingdom of God.

They enjoy the peace that is given on earth to persons of goodwill, the life of the consummate and perfect person of wisdom. -Sermon on the Mount 1, 2

Prayer: Lord, whatever You give me is too little for me. Be You Yourself my inheritance! I Love You with all my heart and all my soul and all my mind. Of what value is anything You give me that is not Yourself!

Parish Mission Statement

We Believe that God is Love, and when we live in love we live in God and God lives in us! Therefore we, the Parish Family of Saint Turibius, dedicate ourselves to living out Christ's Great Commandment: we will love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength, and we will show our love for God by the way we love and care for one another. To this end, we will respond to our baptismal call, strengthened by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit. As a Family of Faith that has an Attitude of Gratitude for the gifts God has given to us, we will share our time, our talent and our treasure with each other. We welcome into our parish family all people, because we believe that together we are the Body of Christ and together we can bring the love, peace, forgiveness, healing, and joy of Christ into our community in ways we never could have if we were to remain apart. May all who meet us, who worship with us, who work and play with us, know we are Christians by our love!
