Whoever loves Me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to Him.

El que me ama cumplirá mi palabra y mi Padre to amará y haremos en el nuestra morada, dice el Señor.

Jeśli Mnie kto miłuje, będzie zachowywał moją naukę, a Ojciec mój umiłuje go i przyjdziemy do niego.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Brief History of All Saints Day

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

This year, the Feast of All Saints is not an obligatory Holy Day because it falls on a Monday. This means that Catholics are not obliged to attend Mass but strongly encouraged to do on this day.

All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV, who consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Virgin Mary and all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609 AD. Boniface IV also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.

The choice of the day may have been intended to co-opt the pagan holiday "Feast of the Lamures," a day which pagans used to placate the restless spirits of the dead.

The holy day was eventually established on November 1 by Pope Gregory III in the mid-eighth century as a day dedicated to the saints and their relics. The May 13 celebration was subsequently abandoned.

Following the establishment of the Frankish Empire, and following the reign of Charlemagne, the holy day, which was already celebrated on November 1, became a holy day of obligation by decree of Pope Gregory IV and Louis the Pious, who was king over a portion of Charlemagne's former empire.

This year, the feast of All Saints is Sunday.
We will follow our normal Sunday Schedule.

Estimados Hermanos/as en Cristo,

Breve historia del día de todos los santos

El Día de Todos los Santos es un día sagrado solemne de la Iglesia Católica que se celebra anualmente el 1 de noviembre. El día está dedicado a los santos de la Iglesia, es decir, a todos los que han alcanzado el cielo. No debe confundirse con el Día de Todas las Almas, que se observa el 2 de noviembre, y está dedicado a aquellos que han muerto y aún no han llegado al cielo.

Este año, la Fiesta de Todos los Santos no es un Día Santo obligatorio porque cae en Lunes. Esto significa que los católicos no están obligados a asistir a misa, pero se les recomienda encarecidamente que lo hagan en este día.

El Día de Todos los Santos fue iniciado formalmente por el Papa Bonifacio IV, quien consagró el Panteón en Roma a la Virgen María y a todos los Mártires el 13 de mayo de 609 DC. Bonifacio IV también estableció el Día de Todas las Almas, que sigue a Todos los Santos.

La elección del día puede haber tenido la intención de cooptar la fiesta pagana "Fiesta de los Lamures", un día que los paganos solían aplacar a los inquietos espíritus de los muertos.

El día santo fue establecido finalmente el 1 de noviembre por el Papa Gregorio III a mediados del siglo VIII como un día dedicado a los santos y sus reliquias. La celebración del 13 de mayo fue posteriormente abandonada.

Después del establecimiento del Imperio franco, y después del reinado de Carlomagno, el día santo, que ya se celebró el 1 de noviembre, se convirtió en un día sagrado de obligación por decreto del papa Gregorio IV y de Luis el Piadoso, que era rey de una parte del antiguo imperio de Carlomagno.

Este año, la festividad de Todos los Santos cae en domingo.
Seguiremos nuestro horario habitual de domingo.

Drodzy Bracia i Siostry w Chrystusie,

Krótka historia Dnia Wszystkich Świętych

Dzień Wszystkich Świętych to uroczysty dzień Kościoła katolickiego obchodzony corocznie 1 listopada. Dzień poświęcony jest świętym Kościoła, to znaczy wszystkim, którzy osiągnęli niebo. Nie należy go mylić z Dniem Wszystkich Duszy, który obchodzony jest 2 listopada i jest poświęcony tym, którzy umarli i jeszcze nie dotarli do nieba.

W tym roku Święto Wszystkich Świętych nie jest świętem obowiązkowym, ponieważ przypada w poniedziałek. Oznacza to, że katolicy nie są zobowiązani do uczęszczania na mszę, ale są do tego mocno zachęcani w tym dniu.

Dzień Wszystkich Świętych został oficjalnie rozpoczęty przez papieża Bonifacego IV, który konsekrował Panteon w Rzymie Dziewicy Maryi i wszystkim Męczennikom 13 maja w 609 r. Bonifacy IV ustanowił także Dzień Wszystkich Duszy, który następuje po Wszystkich Świętych.

Wybór dnia mógł mieć na celu dokooptowanie pogańskiego święta „Święta lamurów", dnia, którego poganie używali do uspokojenia niespokojnych duchów umarłych.

Święto zostało ostatecznie ustanowione 1 listopada przez papieża Grzegorza III w połowie VIII wieku jako dzień poświęcony świętym i ich relikwiom. Święto 13 maja zostało następnie porzucone.

Po ustanowieniu imperium frankońskiego i po panowaniu Karola Wielkiego dzień święty, obchodzony już 1 listopada, stał się świętym dniem obowiązku dekretem papieża Grzegorza IV i Ludwika Pobożnego, który był królem byłego imperium Karola Wielkiego.

W tym roku święto Wszystkich Świętych przypada w niedzielę. Będziemy przestrzegać naszego zwykłego niedzielnego rozkładu.

Liturgy of the Word

We are reminded in today's Gospel of the two commandments that Jesus identifies as the greatest. Above every other law, order, or command, we are called to do two things: love God and love our neighbor. The first reading gives practical applications of this command. They reflect an era from many centuries ago, but we can still appreciate them today. May our love for God and neighbor grow and flourish in our hearts, our souls, and our minds, motivating us to show that love here and out in the world.

The Need for Daily Bread

When you say; "Give us this day our daily bread," you admit that you are God's beggar. But do not be ashamed; however rich anyone may be on earth, that person is God's beggar. The beggar stands before the house of the rich Being. Rich people need their "daily bread." Why do they have an abundance of everything? For no other reason that that God has given it to them. What, the, will they have if God shoud withdraw His aid? - Sermon 56,9

Prayer: Lord, all things are Yours, for You made them. We thank you.
-Sermon 16A, 6

Parish Mission Statement

We Believe that God is Love, and when we live in love we live in God and God lives in us! Therefore we, the Parish Family of Saint Turibius, dedicate ourselves to living out Christ's Great Commandment: we will love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength, and we will show our love for God by the way we love and care for one another. To this end, we will respond to our baptismal call, strengthened by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit. As a Family of Faith that has an Attitude of Gratitude for the gifts God has given to us, we will share our time, our talent and our treasure with each other. We welcome into our parish family all people, because we believe that together we are the Body of Christ and together we can bring the love, peace, forgiveness, healing, and joy of Christ into our community in ways we never could have if we were to remain apart. May all who meet us, who worship with us, who work and play with us, know we are Christians by our love!
