

Eat a Whole Plant!

Go shopping for your snack—in your refrigerator, in a garden, or in the grocery store. Pick one part of each plant for your snack. Write the name and draw a picture of what part of the plant you will eat for snack.

Seeds

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a picture of the snack.

Stem

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a picture of the snack.

Leaves

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a picture of the snack.

Flower

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a picture of the snack.

Fruit

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a picture of the snack.

Root

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a picture of the snack.