

The Kingdoms' Fall

Week 17

Big Idea: Jeremiah had good reason to weep, but God has the remedy to wipe tears away.

Key Verse: Lamentations 3:25-26

²⁵ The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him,
to the one who seeks him;

²⁶ it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Living Faith

God opened up the heavens and gave the prophet Ezekiel amazing visions. Gather your family around a table. Make sure to have an assortment of paper, crayons, colored pencils, and other drawing utensils. Read all of Ezekiel 1 out loud. When you're finished, take some time to draw the creatures that he described. You can even draw the scene with the heavenly sapphire throne and glowing metal figure (Ezekiel 1:26–28). Have fun critiquing each other's work. When you're finished, ask:

Is it possible to describe heavenly creatures or heaven with words?

Why can't words do God justice?

What do these creatures say about the creativity of God? Can't you just picture these creatures in a movie or comic book?

These creatures are called cherubim. God specially made them for a purpose. Think about other things that God made that might look weird but have a special purpose. What about ears? star-nosed moles?

When you've finished talking, read more about this scene in Ezekiel 10. Make any additions or changes to your illustrations that you want to. Hang the final products on the refrigerator for a week to remind your family of God's power and creativity.

Extra Mile

God's people knew the truth, but they turned their back on it and followed their own ways. But even as God judges his people, he looks to their redemption (see Ezekiel 36:22–36). God is a God of mercy and healing. Texas Rangers outfielder Josh Hamilton accepted Christ at 18, and shortly after, he was picked No. 1 in the major league baseball draft. In the minor leagues, he got addicted to drugs and nearly lost everything: money, fame, a beautiful wife. After years of drug abuse, Josh rededicated his life to God, and God gave it all back. At the 2008 All-Star Game, Josh hit a record-breaking 28 home runs in one round of the home run derby. Talk about Josh's story and then talk as a family about the similarities between his story and what happened to God's people.

What was Josh's idol?

How did God give everything back to Josh?

What does this say about God's character?
