Key Actions This Week

Discuss | Pick a chore or skill that you consider difficult. Allow family members to help you decide what or who could help you achieve it. Think about all the excuses you could use to quit trying. Ask God to give you a willing spirit when He asks you to do something for Him.

On Mission | Think of someone you know who is facing a difficult task. Make a card for her with the Bible verse, Psalm 147:5. Remind the person that you will be praying for her to trust God to help her do the difficult task.

Pray | God is everything you need and you can trust Him. Thank Him for being your wisdom, your peace, your strength and your courage.
