

Scott Smith

Scott Smith is the Director of Restorative Justice for Neighbor-to-Neighbor, Inc, which serves four Oregon counties with juvenile justice casework and community-based (self-referred) RJ. His prior restorative justice experience includes adult diversion, schools implementation, organizational conflict, and campus-based sexual harms. He also serves on the Planning Committee of RJ Northwest (formerly NW Justice Forum).

Scott has worked in the U.S. and abroad in education and in conflict transformation, and his experiences in each arena greatly inform his practice in the other. He lives with his family in Corvallis.