This film invites viewers into a journey of honesty, healing, and redemption, encouraging women everywhere to discover who they truly are in Christ. Through intimate stories of women from diverse backgrounds, the film reveals how broken father relationships can affect identity, trust, and even faith. Blending personal testimonies with insights from counselors, pastors, and ministry leaders, the documentary exposes the silent pain carried by countless women. Yet it also offers a message of hope - showing how healing, restoration, and true identity can be found through the love of God as a perfect Father.
