MARK SHUEY – NOMINATED FOR MINISTRY BOARD

Mark Shuey grew up in central PA graduating from Cedar Cliff High School. Mark is now retired, but he used to be the Director of Media Technology at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute. He is married to Luann, and they have three children, Alex (33), Todd (30) and Kara (26). They have been attending Daybreak since the early 2000's and what drew Mark to Daybreak and still stands true today is how intentional and genuine the church family is in the Great Commandment, loving God and loving others. He is currently on the Daybreak writing team and Daybreak preaching team as well as now a Stephen Minister. Mark has also led several Theodyssey groups. Some fun facts about Mark are that for 13 years he was the morning sports reporter for WINK 104's morning show, at age 50, he decided to run a marathon and his wife and him love to read so they turned their living room into a library.

COLIN CAMERON – NOMINATED FOR MINISTRY BOARD

Colin moved frequently up and down the East Coast while growing up. He graduated from Kaiserslautern American High School in West Germany, went on to earn a BA in Music Education from South Dakota State University, and 20 years later, earned an MS in Management Information Systems from The George Washington University. Colin and his family lived in Ashburn, VA from 1994 to 2021. Colin played guitar and sang on the worship team for 14 years, directed the youth worship team band, taught 1st and 2nd grade Sunday school, and led a weekly small group bible study at his previous church. In 2016, Kristi, Andrew, and Colin founded Grace Aquaponics (<http://GraceAquaponics.com>), whose mission is to extend the grace of God to people in need by growing and sharing pure produce, by sharing the good news of Jesus Christ, and by designing and building Aquaponic systems for food pantries, churches, and missionaries. Colin retired from his career as a computer programmer in 2019 and they moved to Dillsburg, PA in 2021. They started attending Daybreak with their son Andrew (who lives in Mechanicsburg with his wife Holly) because of the strong bible-based teaching, friendly people, and awesome worship team! At Daybreak, Colin serves as a life group leader, is a member of the communion team, and has helped with various maintenance projects around the buildings and grounds. He spends time growing vegetables in the Aquaponic Greenhouse in their backyard and volunteers once a week at the New Hope Ministries food pantry in Dillsburg.

DIANE HAKES – NOMINATED FOR MINISTRY BOARD

Diane Hakes was born and raised in a small town in Northern New Jersey. She met her husband, Todd, in college at Lock Haven University. They've been married for almost 38 years, have two children and two grandchildren. Diane has been attending Daybreak since November of 2021 when they were first invited by their son, Noah and his girlfriend. Diane loves the fact that Daybreak is intentional about helping people to live out their lives as disciples of Jesus. In 2018, she established Clear Calling, her own coaching and consulting practice, where she equips individuals, churches, and non-profit organizations in understanding and living out their God-given purpose for the sake of others. Additionally, she also works part time on staff at Olive Branch Ministries, a local non-profit for women in Hanover, PA, where she is the Director of Development and Organizational Strategy. Todd and her love to travel and explore new places as well as spending time with their family and friends outdoors.

SUSIE ANDREWS – NOMINATED FOR MINISTRY BOARD (2ND TERM)

Susie grew up in York, PA and graduated from Toccoa Falls College with a degree in Biblical Studies. Susie has been on staff since 2003 and is the Director of Visual Arts and Production & Assistant to the Lead Pastors. She is married to Pastor Shawn and together they have adult twins, Caleb & Jacob. Susie was initially drawn to Daybreak in 1999 after feeling called to be obedient to start a new church that would reach the West Shore. Her favorite things at Daybreak are leading people in worship, creating visual arts and leading Women's Bible studies. Susie was in many TV commercials as a child and was a traveling singer for years prior to joining staff at Daybreak. She has recorded 6 different CDs and was a regular singer on television. She is also a lifetime fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers!

BRYAN SHOLTIS - NOMINATED FOR MINISTRY BOARD (2ND TERM)

Bryan grew up and lived in Montoursville, PA until 1998, then lived in Maine until returning to central Pennsylvania in 2008. Professionally he has been a Special Education teacher, most recently an Emotional Support teacher at Milton Area High School. Presently he is pursuing a career change to enter ministry. Bryan has been attending Daybreak since 2015, and there are a couple things that stand out to him about our church: "first is the way the leadership and people I've grown to know at Daybreak exemplify God's grace, and second is the love and care Daybreak expresses to people, especially those people who are hurting or struggling." Bryan has been part of a short-term mission trip to Ecuador, a small group member, a member of the Care and Bereavement teams, and is presently serving as a Care Pastor Intern. Bryan has a loving wife, Amanda, a daughter, Ashley, a son Evan, and a stepdaughter, Mackenzie. In his free time, Bryan loves to be on a stream fly-fishing, and he is an avid downhill skier and Penn State fan.

DAN LLOYD – NOMINATED FOR GOVERNING BOARD

Dan Lloyd grew up in Barnsboro, New Jersey. Dan met his wife, Heather, in college, and have been married since 1994. They have one daughter, Jolie. The family started attending Daybreak in September 2020 as they were relocating to Mechanicsburg from Downingtown, PA. Daybreak was a great fit, as Dan believes the mission statement states perfectly what he's passionate about: being a family on mission, and helping people discover and deepen their relationship with Jesus. Dan has had the opportunity to contribute to the Daybreak mission as a part of the Alpha team. Dan leads the corporate tax team of a global IT services provider, EPAM Systems. In his free time, Dan enjoys traveling with his family, walking his pugs, and cheering for the Phillies.

ADAM HERMAN – NOMINATED FOR GOVERNING BOARD (2ND TERM)

Adam grew up in Carlisle and currently lives in Enola with his wife, Sandy, and their two Jack Russell "Terrors." He has worked for Crump Life Insurance Services, a subsidiary of Truist Bank (formerly BB&T), for 24 years. His current role is Manager of Learning and Development Services. Adam and Sandy joined Daybreak in 2018 and love that it is a neighborhood church where the relationships feel like family. Adam and Sandy serve together on the GHR greeting team, greeting for 7th Inning Stretch, on the Clarify Team, and with the Marriage Ministries Leadership Team. Adam also serves in the Man Up! and Band of Brothers groups. He enjoys woodworking and home projects, the Philadelphia Eagles, and adventurous road trips with Sandy.

VICTORIA LINDSTROM – NOMINATED FOR VICE - PRESIDENT

A native of Dillsburg, Victoria is the founder of Suasion, a marketing communications firm, and recently launched Abundantly More, a coaching and consulting practice. Additionally, she is an officer for her husband's family business, Lindstrom Machining, providing financial oversight and strategic planning for the corporation. She has certificates in Christian Life Coaching and Relationship Coaching. For more than fifteen years, Victoria has found Daybreak to be a community of authentic people who truly accept each other while challenging each person to grow closer to Christ. She has led several Home and Care Groups and is currently helping to lead Daybreak's marriage ministry. Victoria has participated in church planning projects, led strategic planning sessions for a variety of ministries and was part of Daybreak's mission team to Cuba. Together, Victoria and her husband Todd have five adult children: Morgan, Tyler, Alyx, Derek and Micah. They are also blessed with twelve grandchildren. In addition to spending time with family, Victoria loves to learn new things (she has an insatiable curiosity!), visit new places, and be in nature, in awe of God's creation.

SCOTT SHIRLEY – NOMINATED FOR TREASURER

Scott grew up in Enola, PA, went to Penn State (BS '03 & M.Eng '04), then moved to DC for a few years before returning home to Central PA. Scott is married to Stephanie and they enjoy having a blast with their 2 young kids - Holden & Bennis. Scott and Stephanie were introduced to Daybreak in 2012 by a Daybreak member, and they love Daybreak's mission and encouragement to live a 3C (Celebrate, Connect, Contribute) lifestyle. They have also found great connection in a small group here at Daybreak. Professionally, Scott serves as the CEO of Pledge It and as the Executive Director of Uplifting Athletes. Here at Daybreak, Scott is serving as the church's treasurer. You may not know, but Scott is a former Penn State football player and has lots of great stories from that time in his life.

BOBBI TRUDGEON – NOMINATED FOR SECRETARY

Bobbi Trudgeon grew up in Ohio and western PA before moving to this area after graduating from Messiah College. She is currently a data architect for a medical liability insurance company. She and her husband, Kerry, have been married for 32 years and have a 3-year-old daughter, Cara. They have been attending Daybreak since its start in 1999 but were attending Daybreak's parent church before that. Bobbi was initially drawn to the church by its focus on relationships (deepening relationships with God, relational ministry, and authentic relationships with others) and loves hearing stories of how God has transformed the lives of other Daybreak members. Bobbi has been very active at Daybreak in serving. Over the years, Bobbi has served in many roles including in women's ministry, children's ministry, the financial team, EHS team, Wellspring and Spiritual Direction Team. Kerry and she have also served on 2 mission trips with Daybreak. Some of Bobbi's hobbies include outdoor activities and nature such as walking, taking hikes and biking.
