We are transformed as we invite others to become trusted companions who share in our pursuit of Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love.
<sup>10</sup> If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. <sup>11</sup> I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. <sup>12</sup> My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. <sup>14</sup> You are my friends if you do what I command. <sup>15</sup> I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. <sup>16</sup> You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. <sup>17</sup> This is my command: Love each other."

- John 15:9-17 (NIV)

"Attachment is the strongest force in the human brain. It is not an emotion, although we feel it strongly. Attachment runs deeper than that. It's the best word scientists could find for what it is that glues people together in relationships. It produces an enduring care for the well-being of another. It is a life-giving forever bond with no mechanism in the brain to unglue us."

- Michel Hendricks, The Other Half of Church

The central attribute of us being _____ comes from _____ attachments to others.

Our character grows from our _____; and our identity is formed in _____.

Transforming communities (and trusted companions) will...

1. Give us real-time opportunities to become _____ at receiving and giving love
2. Encourage us in the midst of our _____
3. Help us _____ God's leading when it's unclear
4. Celebrate the moments where God is _____

Your challenge: Get into a group after the holidays in 2024

1. Write down your request for assistance in the Response Cards
2. Visit Groups.db.church and select a type of group you want to join
3. Fill out the form at menu.db.church to indicate interest in any specific type of group.
