¹⁰ but the angel reassured them. "Don't be afraid!" he said. "I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. ¹¹ The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David! ¹² And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger." ¹³ Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying, ¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased." ¹⁵ When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem! Let's see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about. ¹⁶ They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger." ¹⁷ After seeing him, the shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child. ¹⁸ All who heard the shepherds' story were astonished.

- Luke 2:10-18 (NLT)

Jesus spoke to the people once more and said, "I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you won't have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life."

- John 8:12 (NLT)

Joy! From the moment we're born we search for it but constantly seem to come away empty. What is it? How can we get it? Is it even possible? When we have joy, we grow more resilient, and when we share joy, we grow loving relationships. When joy is absent, it leaves us disconnected, dry, even depressed. Join us as we discover how God designed us to crave joy. Where there is an abundance of joy, there is transformation!
