Rev. Monte Peterson, Pastor
Heather May, Youth & Family Minister
Carol Peterson, Music Director
Becky Cunningham, Office Manager

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, gay, filthy rich, or dirt poor. We welcome you if you can sing like Andrea Bocelli or if, like our pastor, you struggle to carry a tune. You're welcome here if you're "just browsing," just woke up, or just got out of jail.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome soccer moms, NASCAR dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, or junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems or if you don't like "organized religion." Sometimes we don't like it either, and we're not always very organized!

We welcome those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or came because grandma is in town and wanted to go to church.

We welcome you if you could use a prayer right now, if you had religion shoved down your throat as a kid, or if you got lost in traffic and wound up here by mistake. Our welcome won't be perfect, because we're not perfect, but we believe that Jesus loves and welcomes all, so we try to do that too. We're glad you're here, and we hope you experience God's love tonight.

“The Work of Christmas”

Poem by Howard Thurman

P: When the song of the angels is stilled, when the star in the sky is gone,

C: when the kings and princes are home,
when the shepherds are back with their flocks,

P: the work of Christmas begins:

C: to find the lost,
to heal the broken,

*P: to feed the hungry,
to release the prisoner,*

C: to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among the people,

All: to make music in the heart. Amen.

POSTLUDE

“From Heaven Above”

Walter Pelz
