Welcome to Saint Nicholas! We're glad you're worshipping with us today. May our time together be a blessing to you. If you are visiting with us this morning, please sign the guest register in the Narthex on the podium.

Child care is available during worship for infants and toddlers in our staffed nursery room down the hall. All children ages 5 - 10 are invited to attend Time for Children in the North Wing where they will hear a bible lesson presented through story, song and prayer. Children are dismissed with the adult leaders following the Children's Sermon and return to worship for Holy Communion.

Our worship always includes the sacrament of Holy Communion and all people are welcome to receive. Children are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing from the pastor.

Confession And Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✝ one God, full of compassion and mercy, abounding in steadfast love. Amen.

Trusting God's promise of forgiveness, let us confess our sin against God and one another.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

Eternal God our creator,
in you we live and move and have our being.
Look upon us, your children,
the work of your hands.
Forgive us all our offenses,
and cleanse us from proud thoughts and empty desires.
By your grace draw us near to you,
our refuge and our strength;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
God's love has been poured into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit given to us.
In the mercy of almighty God,
Christ died for us while we still were sinners;
and for his sake, God ✝ forgives you all your sins.
Amen.

Gathering Song: As the Deer

As the deer panteth for the water,
so my soul longeth after Thee;
You alone are my heart's desire and I long to worship Thee.

You alone are my strength my shield,
To You alone may my spirit yield;
You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship Thee.

I want You more than gold or silver
only You can satisfy;
You alone are the real Joy Giver,
and the Apple of my eye.

You alone are my strength my shield,
To You alone may my spirit yield;
You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship Thee.

You're my Friend and You are my Brother,
even though You are a King;
I love You more than any other,
so much more than anything.

You alone are my strength my shield,
To You alone may my spirit yield;
You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship Thee.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

Time For Children (9:30 service)

(All children ages 5-10 are invited to hear a bible lesson presented through story, song and prayer in the North Wing.)

First Reading: Genesis 3:8-15

A reading from Genesis.

Immediately after Adam and Eve eat the forbidden fruit, they hide from God. Neither takes responsibility for their sin, instead blaming each other, the snake, and even God. The curse on the snake was understood as a messianic prophecy by the early church, who associated Eve's "offspring" with Christ.

⁸[Adam and Eve] heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.⁹But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" ¹⁰He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." ¹¹He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" ¹²The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." ¹³Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." ¹⁴The LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. ¹⁵I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm: 130 (Please read responsively)

¹Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;

²O LORD, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

³If you were to keep watch over sins,

O LORD, who could stand?

⁴Yet with you is forgiveness, in order that you may be feared.

⁵I wait for you, O LORD; my soul waits;
in your word is my hope.

⁶My soul waits for the Lord more than those who keep watch for the morning, more than those who keep watch for the morning.

⁷O Israel, wait for the LORD, for with the LORD there is steadfast love;
with the LORD there is plenteous redemption.

⁸For the LORD shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm Prayer

Let us pray.

God of compassion, you sent your Word into the world to announce the dawn of salvation. Do not leave us in the depths of our sins, but give to us the fullness of your redeeming grace; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. ✝ Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and forever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:13--5:1

A reading from 2 Corinthians.

Life in the present is transitory and cannot compare with the eternal home God has prepared for us. So we do not despair no matter what life might bring because we know that as God raised Jesus from the dead, God promises to bring us into eternal life.

¹³Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, ¹⁴because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. ¹⁵Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. ¹⁶So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, ¹⁸because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal. ^{5:1}For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

The Holy Gospel according to Mark the 3rd chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

In response to charges that he is possessed, Jesus wonders aloud how anyone who is demon-possessed can cast out demons. Those who do the will of God are possessed by the Holy Spirit, sisters and brothers of Christ.

[Jesus went home;] ²⁰and the crowd came together again, so that [Jesus and the disciples] could not even eat. ²¹When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, “He has gone out of his mind.”

²²And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.” ²³And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. ²⁷But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. ²⁸“Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; ²⁹but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”— ³⁰for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.” ³¹Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. ³²A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.” ³³And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” ³⁴And looking at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! ³⁵Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers Of Intercession

Each prayer petition concludes with the following words:

*Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Let us pray.

Merciful God, you open wide your hand and satisfy the need of every living thing. You have set this feast before us. Open our hands to receive it. Open our hearts to embrace it. Open our lives to live it. We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dialogue

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer

Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Come, let us eat, for now the feast is spread.

All are welcome to receive the sacrament. Today we commune by intinction. With intinction, the communion participant comes forward, receives a wafer and then dips it into the chalice of wine or grape juice before eating it. We also offer gluten free wafers at communion. Children not yet prepared for Holy Communion are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing from the pastor.

Reading Camp Calvert 2018

Plans are being finalized for Reading Camp Calvert 2018. Our camp week this year is July 9-13 and our program runs from 8:30-4 every day. We are thankful that St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Prince Frederick is hosting us again this year. As in the past, our mornings will be spent strengthening reading skills in a stress free environment. Our afternoons will be spent participating in true "camp" activities, including field trips to the library, Calvert Marine Museum and to the pool (always a favorite with the campers). In addition, we have arts and craft activities planned as well as visitors with fun activities to keep our campers rocking.

We are currently looking for looking for high school volunteers to help in the following areas:

- 4 teacher assistants to help in the classrooms
- 2 camp counselor group leaders
- 2 child care providers to help with the young children of our teachers

We are also looking for a second Pleasure Reading teacher and other adults to help in the Pleasure Reading classroom.

If you would like to volunteer, or know a youth who would like to spend a week working with reluctant readers, please contact Debbie Shupe at 410-231-8150 or email me at deb_shupe@comcast.net.

Where: Items can be dropped off in the "kitchen" area of the North Wing.

When: Everything will be loaded in the truck Sunday, June 10 after the 9:30 service to take to Value Village. A few volunteers are needed to help load. Hotdogs will be provided for lunch.

Hints: Clothing should be prewashed. Please wrap up fragile items. All items should be in working condition. Please contact Colleen Hyland with any questions at 410-474-7118 or cdhyland@comcast.net.

Men's Softball Game

The June 2 doubleheader with First Lutheran will go down in the Saint Nicholas softball history books as one of the most exciting doubleheaders the team has ever played. Both games saw comebacks by both teams, multiple lead changes, and ended in one-run ballgames. Saint Nicholas managed to win both games, the first 12-11 and the second 7-6 in 9 innings, improving their record to 4-2. In the bottom of the seventh of the first game, Austin Owens hustled to third base on Josh Smith's single and scored the winning run when the throw from the outfield got away from the third baseman. In the top of the ninth of the second game, Matt Hickin knocked in Bryan Mullins with the go-ahead run and Austin Owens knocked in Austin Wood with what proved to be the winning run. Austin Owens and Jerry Wood each scored 4 runs in the doubleheader. Josh Smith added 3 runs scored. The results of last night's doubleheader with Battle Creek Independent (a team made up of players from multiple churches) will be reported next week. The team returns to action next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 PM at Hallowing Point # 1 vs league leading Saint Anthony's. Come out to Hallowing Point next Sunday to cheer loudly for Saint Nicholas in this important showdown!!
