2026 STAFF

Ben Mayer will be our manager for 2026. Ben grew up in Minot, ND. He currently lives in Manhattan, KS with his wife Raeann and their two kids: Owen and Lucy. Ben is a landscape install foreman at a local landscape company. He got his bachelor's from UND in rehabilitation and human services. He spent some time working on a graduate degree in school counseling before deciding it wasn't for him. He attended and worked at Camp Bentley for a number of years before he moved to Kansas. He is excited to be serving at camp with his family this summer. Josh and Sarah Dvirnak will be our assistant manager/manger's assistant. They grew up attending Camp Bentley and serving in different roles as they got older. After being married at Camp in 2010, they served as Camp Managers. They are excited to be back again with their family. Josh served n the National Guard for 12 years and did two tours in Iraq. Since then, he has worked various jobs and helped on his family's ranch. Sarah received her bachelor's degree in theology/youth ministry in 2008 and has been primarily homeschooling their four children. She has also enjoyed learning how to live in the country, raise animals and garden. Sarah recently enrolled in UND's Online program and is taking Special Education classes and working towards some certificates. Their children: David (14), Lucy (11), Danielle (9) and Michael (7) are all looking forward to finding their own place as helpers this summer at Camp.

Cheryl Lakoduk of Kief will be our head cook. Cheryl is very experienced in food service having ran cafes, grocery stores, and working for Valley View Manor. Miranda Reider will be our assistant cook. She works as a cook for the Drake/Anamoose school
